Directions . . .

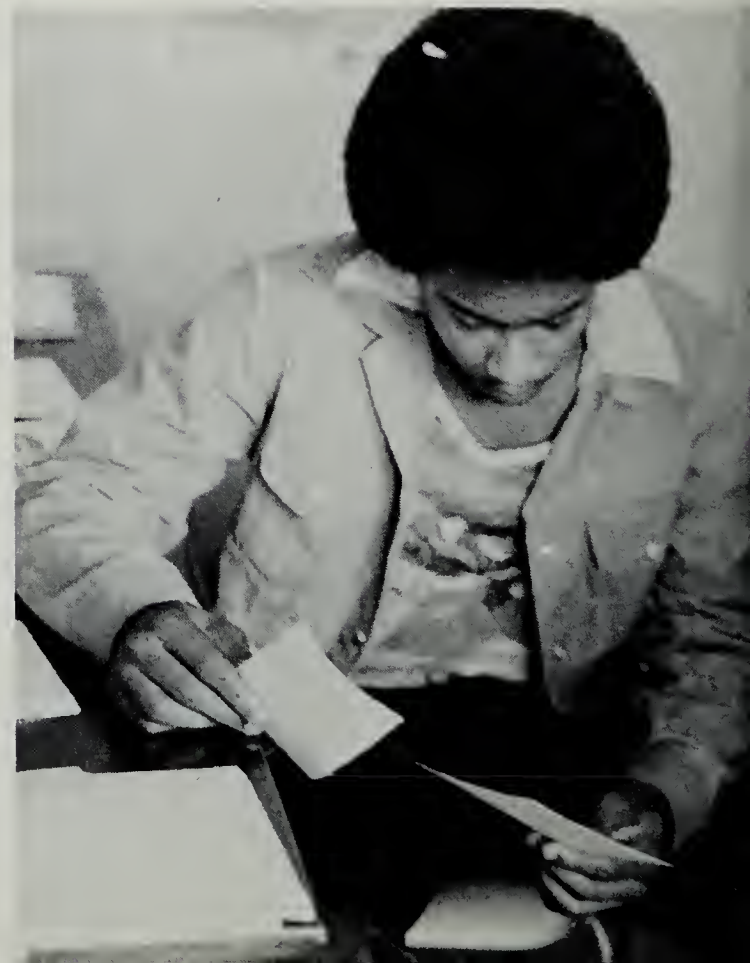

School is the starting point from which we each go in our own direction. It is here that we prepare for what lies ahead by listening to others who are more experienced than we. We work together in classes and draw ideas from each other. Being given certain rights is a step towards our school's goal in teaching us to accept responsibility without abusing our privileges. Training in the various vocational skills gives us a strong foundation on which to build for the future.

Not all learning, of course, takes place in the classroom. We get help and encouragement from our friends, and being with them helps us to ease the pressure of school. Dances and other activities allow us to be with other students outside of class, and also provide something to do in a world built for people over eighteen. All this gives us the basic education, academically, morally, socially, and physically, but it is finally up to each of us individually to choose our own Direction.

DIRECTIONS

Where are we going? In all directions. We each have our favorite pastime. The many good musicians at Falls Church help to give us a winning band. The athletes who train and play hard not only give us exciting competition, but they also give us pride in our school. So much pride, in fact, that even the worst Homecoming weather in years failed to depress the Jaguar fans.

All of us are still in the process of finding out what is best for us. We observe and participate in everything that is going on around us. We get guidance from our teachers and our counselors, and encouragement from our friends. Slowly the world becomes less fuzzy and our directions much clearer.

DIRECTIONS

In and out of Falls Church, each of us has our own special interests and needs. In school we can do what we are interested in to a much fuller extent than at home. Where else can one find a cosmetology laboratory, or the equipment needed to perform a scientific experiment? At Falls Church a guy can learn the very necessary skills of cooking and keeping up a house, without having anybody think twice about it. We can work out our academic problems, always able to try again if we do not succeed at first. In school we can give what we do all that is in us, happy in knowing that we are headed in the right Direction.

DIRECTIONS . . .

Directions can lead forward. They can also lead backward to thinking about the past. Falls Church provided its students with a lifetime of memories. A winning basketball season gave a boost to school spirit. The first girl to serve as President of the Student Government served in the 1975-1976 schoolyear. Various groups held Christmas parties and other projects for the underprivileged, the sick, and the lonely. Other memories are of momentary feelings; sharing a laugh with a friend, worrying about upcoming tests, forgetting about your worries by goofing off and being silly. There are memories of the work we did, and of unique individuals who made us glad of the fact that we were going to Falls Church. Finally, there are memories of goals we had, and how hard we strived to achieve them. From this point we must turn our direction back toward the future, moving ahead with our past experiences to support us.

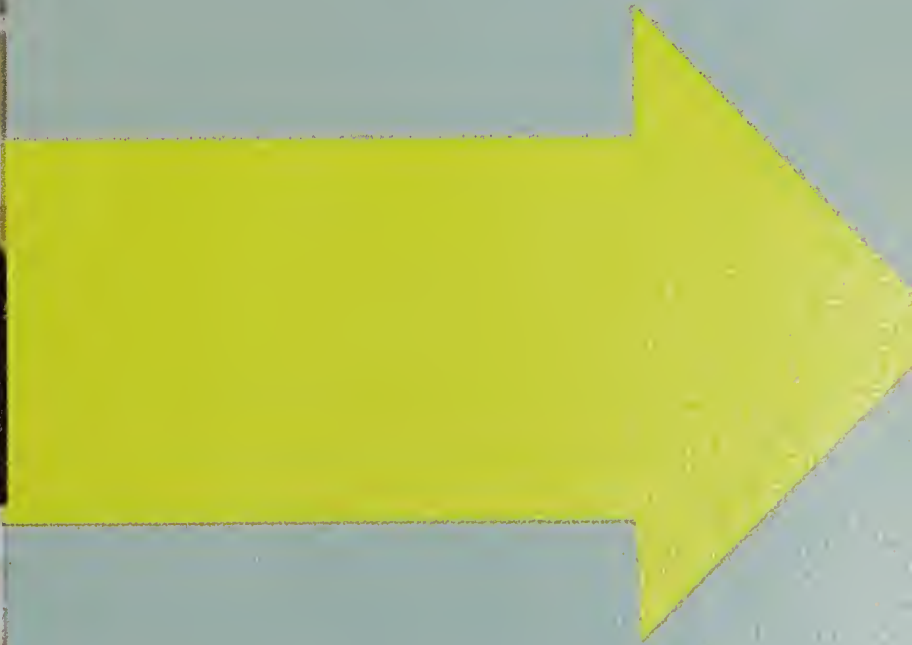

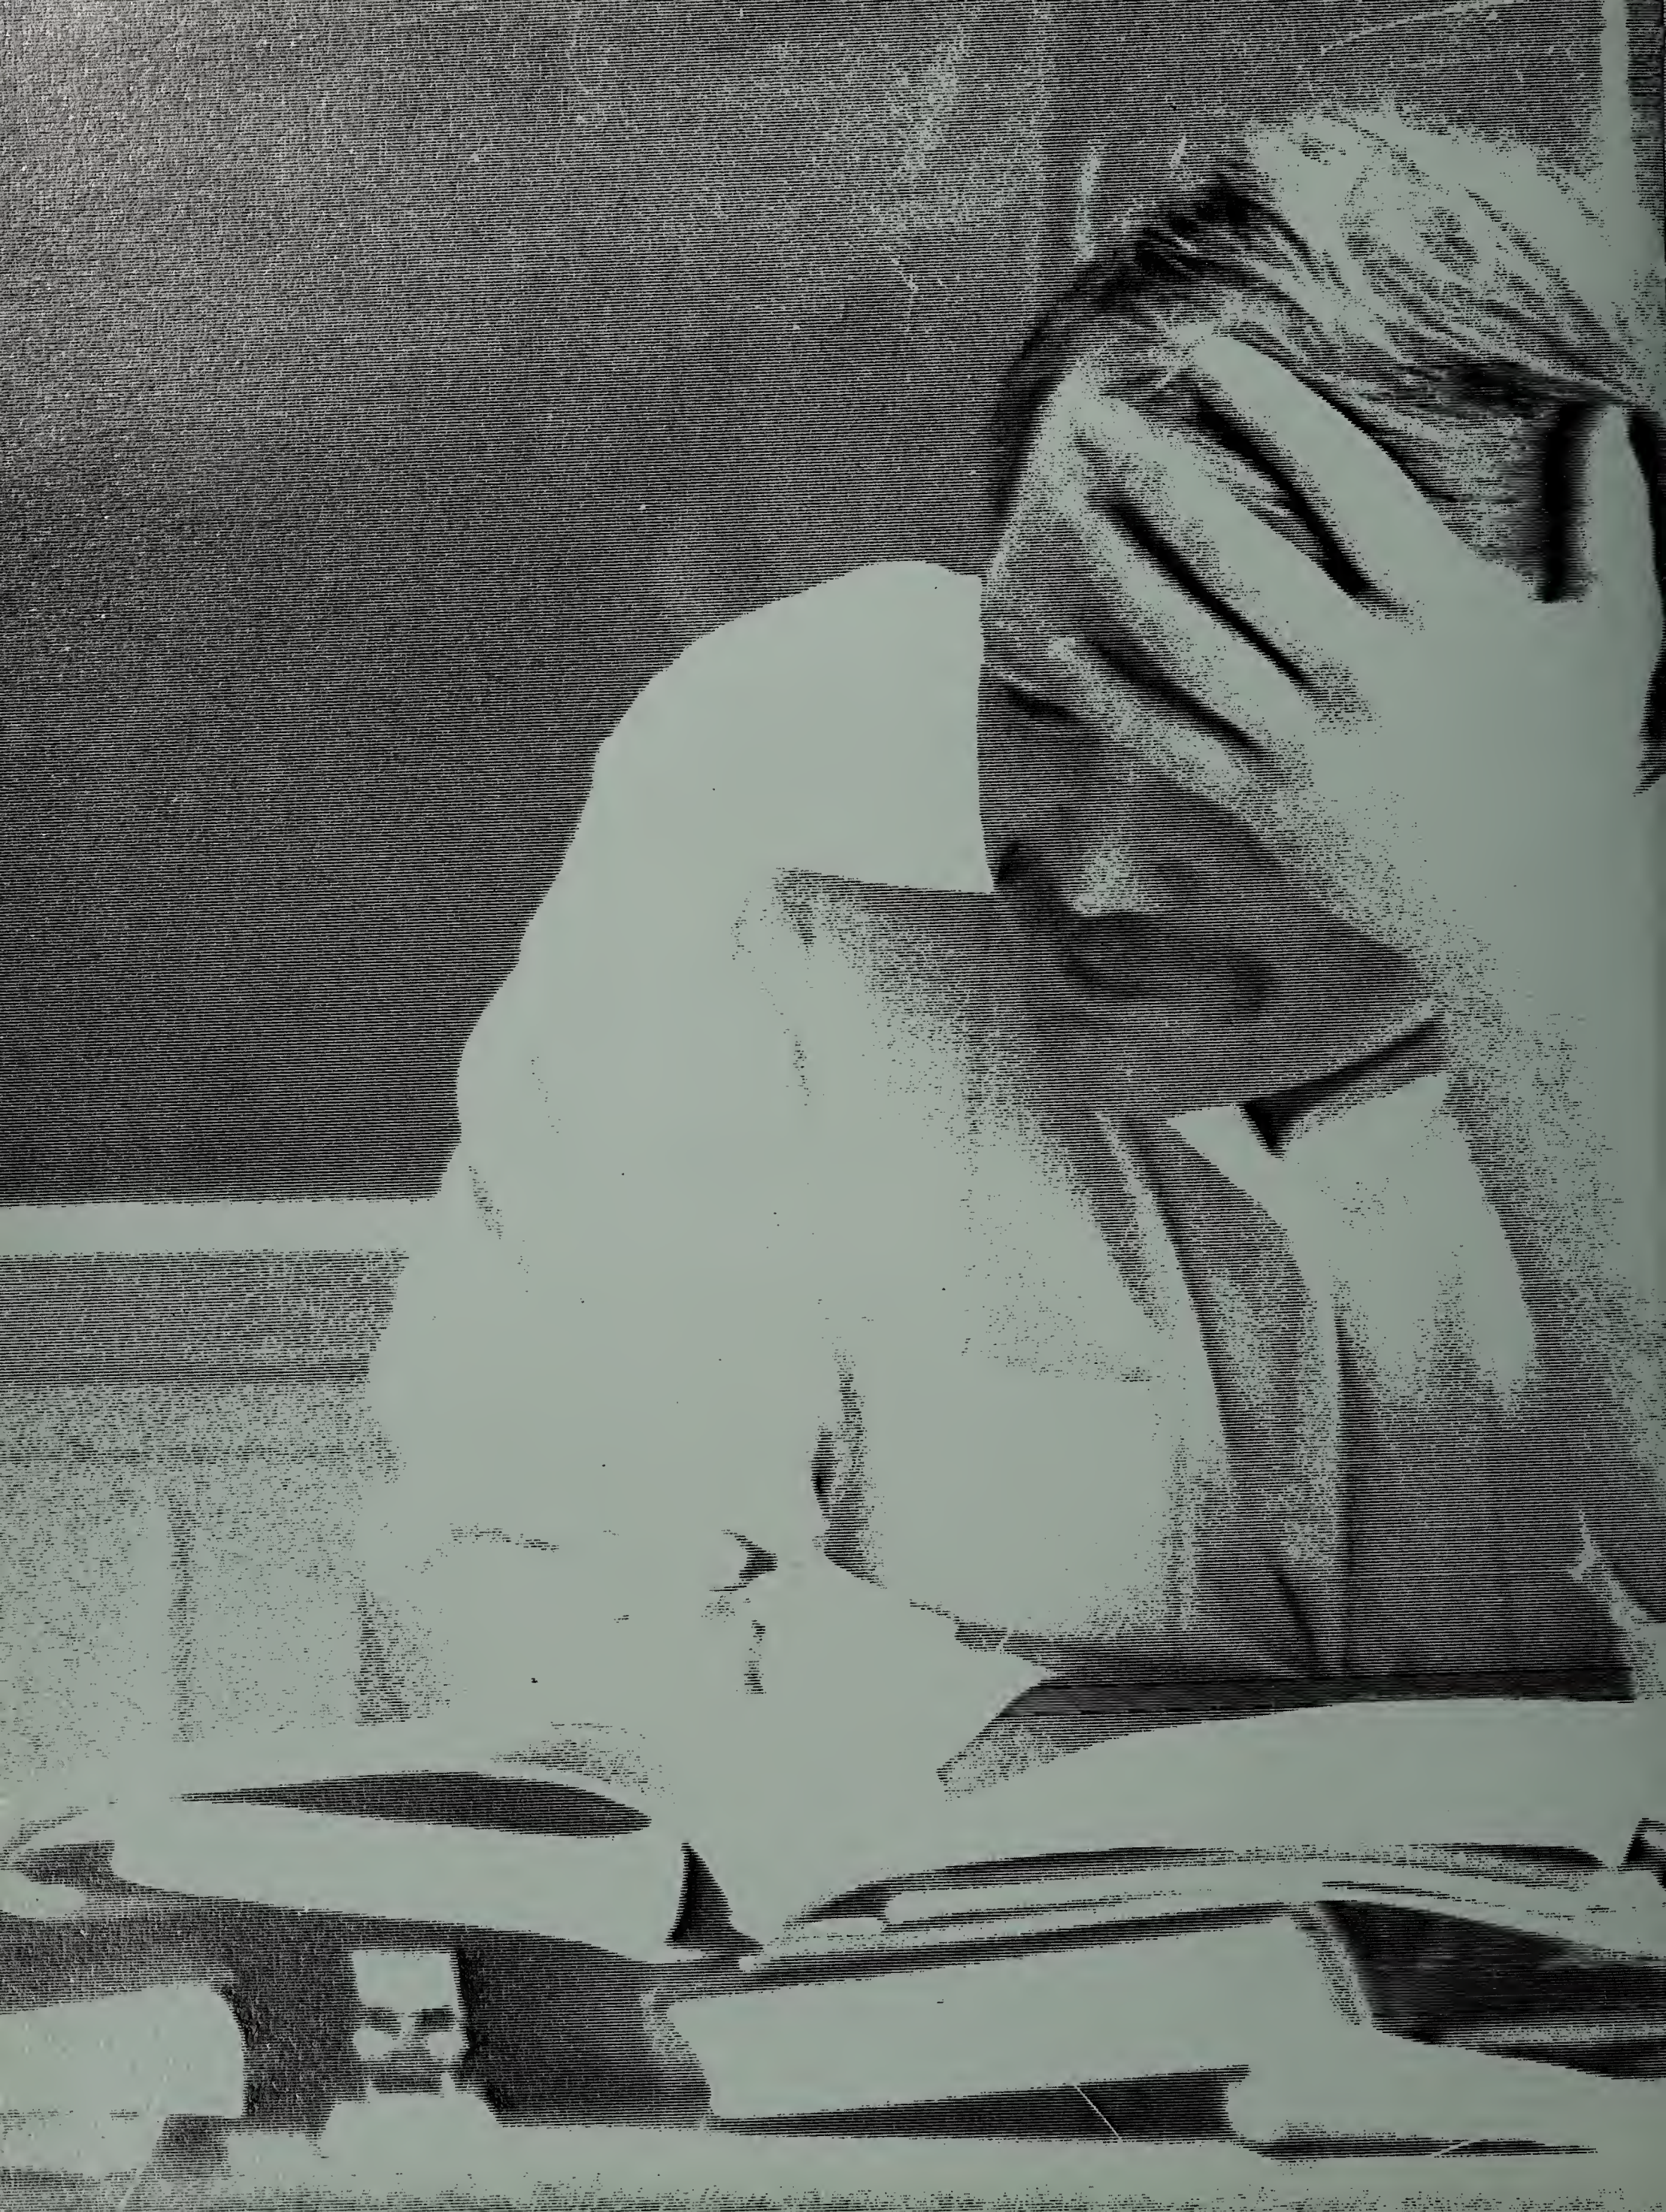

Directions

Heading towards the goal of success, each Falls Church student participates in the school's life. Moving towards our goal in life does not just take us into the future, it also provides us with memories of the past. The 1975-1976 school year will be remembered for its successful football season; a first place hockey team; a perpetually winning band; a fun-loving Junior class; a Senior year shared with somebody special; learning in a friendly atmosphere; and the dedication of Weber Stadium honoring the long, hard work of our athletic director. Memories are our signposts in life. So, turn towards your goal and take off. You know the Direction. You can't miss it!

The Administration Leads Us In Different Directions

We all know the familiar faces of our Administrators. They are always in the halls, chatting with us and directing heavy hallway traffic. Whether we like to admit it or not, the Administrators are here to help. Even though they badger us and tell us to "get where you're going", they are doing it for a purpose. This purpose is to keep the learning process moving as smoothly as possible.

By keeping this process moving, the Administration is doing what it can to give us a good education, and to send us out towards our own chosen directions with the confidence and knowledge it takes to make it in the world around us.

Secretaries Kept Busy

No matter when it is during the day, the secretaries are busy doing their best. And busy they are! Whether it's answering phones for early dismissals, absentees, or guidance conferences, or typing attendance sheets or Administrative correspondence, the work never stops. Then there are all the questions like "Who's my counselor?" or "Where's my early dismissal pass?" Without these secretaries, many others throughout the school couldn't do the jobs they need to do to keep the school going in the right direction.

Science Department Expands Its Fields Of Study

This year, the Science Department has grown to include a Horticulture Course. It also has expanded its Earth Science Course, which was started last year, to eight sections. This Department has hoped to make the students of Falls Church aware of the many different science fields, with a possible career in any one of these fields. It has also recommended students for available scholarships and financial aid in their chosen field. Through all of this, the Science Department has tried to make it easier for us to go in our own direction.

New Courses Added to English Department

The English Department this year had some changes from that of previous years. Global Studies, a combination of English 9 and World History, was only one addition. Communications Arts, also a new program, was an elective for Seniors that taught all areas of communication skills.

The big change this year was the Quarter Credit System. This system, based on a specific set of objectives, was designed to improve the language arts skills. This program helped to develop competency in communication and critical thinking. With these results, this new program in our English Department helped all students to follow their own direction.

ESL Program Expanded

Ester Youm starts her day in ESL.

English as a Second Language develops proficiency in the basic English and communication skills. It also helps students to cope with their new environment. Our ESL students come from many areas, including South America, Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and Southeast Asia. ESL and American-born students had difficulty in establishing ties because of a lack in communication. Various events during the year helped to alleviate this problem. English as a Second Language directs students to life in a new society.

Foreign Languages Strive To Achieve Better Communications

The Foreign Language Department helps broaden our knowledge of other societies. Through text books, films, audio aides, and, in the advanced classes, works of great writers of the country, the students learn to speak, read, and write the language being studied.

Because of this understanding of other cultures, the Foreign Language Department is helping its students understand our culture. Through understanding, we can go in many directions and know where we are going.

Math Department Hires Aide

The Mathematics Department has hired a full time instructional aide. This aide is working as a tutor who helps students with Math problems individually. Through this aide, students who have had problems with Math in the past and those who are just having trouble with just one section, can get the attention and guidance needed to understand what they're having troubles with.

As in the past, the Mathematics Department is interested in helping students use Math to their benefit. This is shown in the continuation of courses such as Consumer Mathematics, and Computer Science, as well as Calculus.

Through this wide variance of course choices, the Mathematics Department helps broaden our choices for the future and could possibly direct us into a related field.

Business Department Prepares Students For The Future

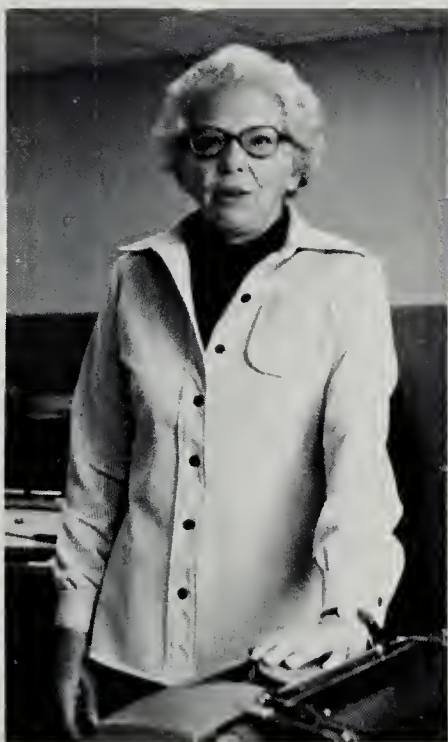

The Business Department, through its courses, helps students prepare for futures in vocational fields. Many of its courses give background for further study in the business fields.

Many of the classes offered, such as Typing I and the new class of Advanced Typing, will be of personal use in the future for all students involved.

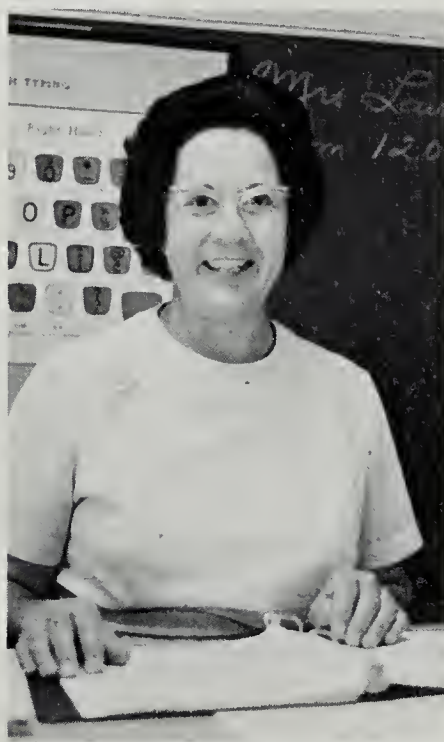

Through Distributive Education, students develop occupational skills. Also, through this department, students are helped in finding jobs in their future professions, giving them direction to make it in this field.

Physical Education Department Takes A Big Step

This year at Falls Church High, the Physical Education Department took a big step in a new direction. This step was the addition of a co-ed elective in gym classes. Through this co-ed elective, both the boys and the girls involved learn and compete in the skills of different sports together. Some of the courses offered are basketball, volleyball, fencing, softball, and weightlifting.

The students involved in this co-ed program, participate in each activity for a three week period. At the beginning of the next three week session, the students get to choose which activity they would like to participate in for that session. This program is proving to be very beneficial to all involved.

Pep Rallies Rock With "Spirit Of '76"

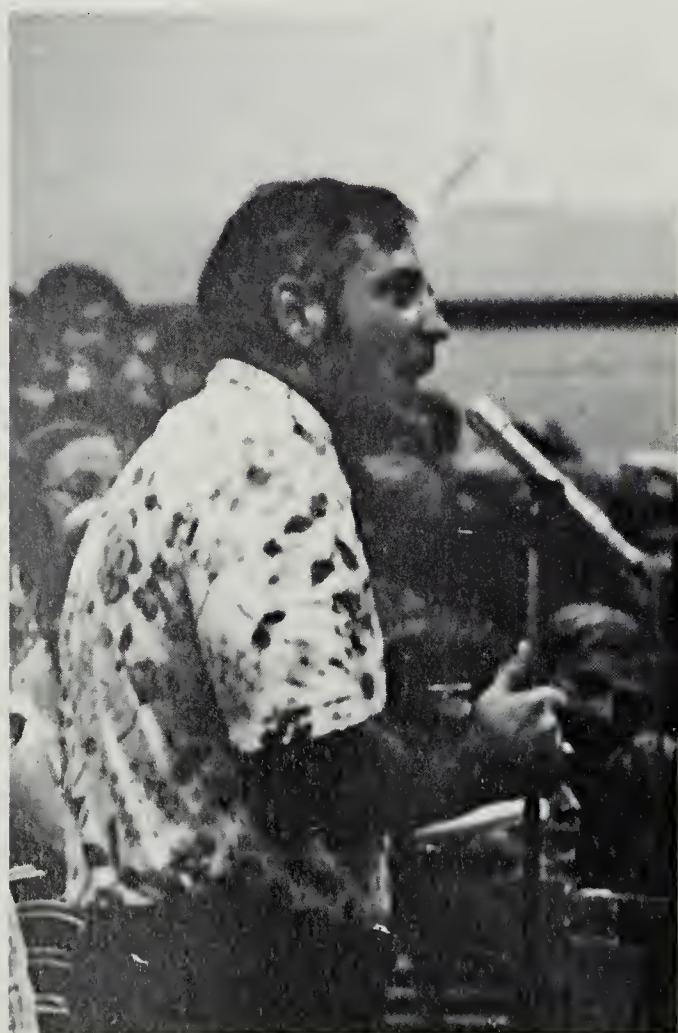

A pep rally can be described by one word — "spirit". From the first yells of the cheerleaders to the last fight song, this excitement can be felt by all. With many new and different ideas of the cheerleaders, the pep rallies were at times very funny and were always successful in psyching up the athletes. With the competition between the classes, the 1976 pep rallies constantly rocked with energy of the Falls Church spirit.

The mighty Seniors come together with their powerful "Victory Cry".

The "Banana Eating Contest" was a funny and successful idea for the first football pep rally.

The first production by the Drama Department was "The Curious Savage". This hilarious comedy is about a widow who knows where fifty million dollars is hidden, and the frantic search by her children to find the money. There were several problems in preparing the production, including stuffing a teddy bear with bonds, collecting enough wood for the set, and finding a very thick framed pair of glasses. After long days and nights of rehearsals and set-building under the incredible direction of Mr. George Allen, the hard work paid off in a successful Halloween weekend production.

A Wet But Enjoyable Homecoming Weekend

Although the rain of the Homecoming Weekend may have dampened some people's plans, Falls Church still came through with a victory. By crushing the Jefferson Colonials 20-6, our mighty Jags raised the spirits of everyone. The halftime show, although not very colorful, entertained all with the crowning of Carol Hayhurst as Queen. The following evening couples came to the Homecoming Dance to enjoy the music of "Seven on Sound". The hard work put into the Homecoming Weekend was appreciated by all, making it an unforgettable experience.

Variety Show Adds $300 To Junior Class Treasury

This year, the Third Annual Variety Show turned out to be another money-making success for the Junior Class. The show featured many new and funny acts such as the "Pillow People" and the "Mouseketeers". With the return of last year's acts of Jaguar Country and Belle Scheibner's impersonations, along with the performances of many talented singers, the Variety Show ended as a very worthwhile project.

Cartoon Characters Come To Life At The Sadie Hawkins Dance

1975-1976 Sadie Hawkins Characters

The Senior Class sponsored a very successful Sadie Hawkins Dance that contributed the needed funds to the treasury. Great thanks were due to cast of characters and their grubbing of money. The Sadie Hawkins characters who participated were Roxane Brocato as Passionata Von Climax, Tina Weisenborn as Cav Gal, Bonnie Reed as Daisy Mae, Kay Schindler as Wolf Gal, Sue Morrow as Seperatin' Sue, Dave Cobert as Marrin' Sam, Dale Goldman as Little Abner, Donny Thompson as Tiny Yokum, Rick Ball as Injun' Joe.

"I really don't think this is the right time for a waltz," explains Cindy Barnes to Eric Jackson.

The Sadie Hawkins Dance would not be complete without the "routiness" of a hay fight.

Falls Church Students "Hit The Hang-Outs"

"Hey, let's go out!" This was the common phrase in the Falls Church hallways. Every Friday and Saturday night, students would head to their favorite "social spot". For the vast majority, this had to be "Giacamo's". Most anyone could hear the latest news by just loitering out front. But, by January, Giacamo's got their beer license and closed their doors to anyone under 18. "Farrell's" and "McDonald's" also provided the right atmosphere for many students — whether that be for munching out or listening in on the latest gossip.

Miss Falls Church Pageant Brings Out Beauty, Talent, And Charm

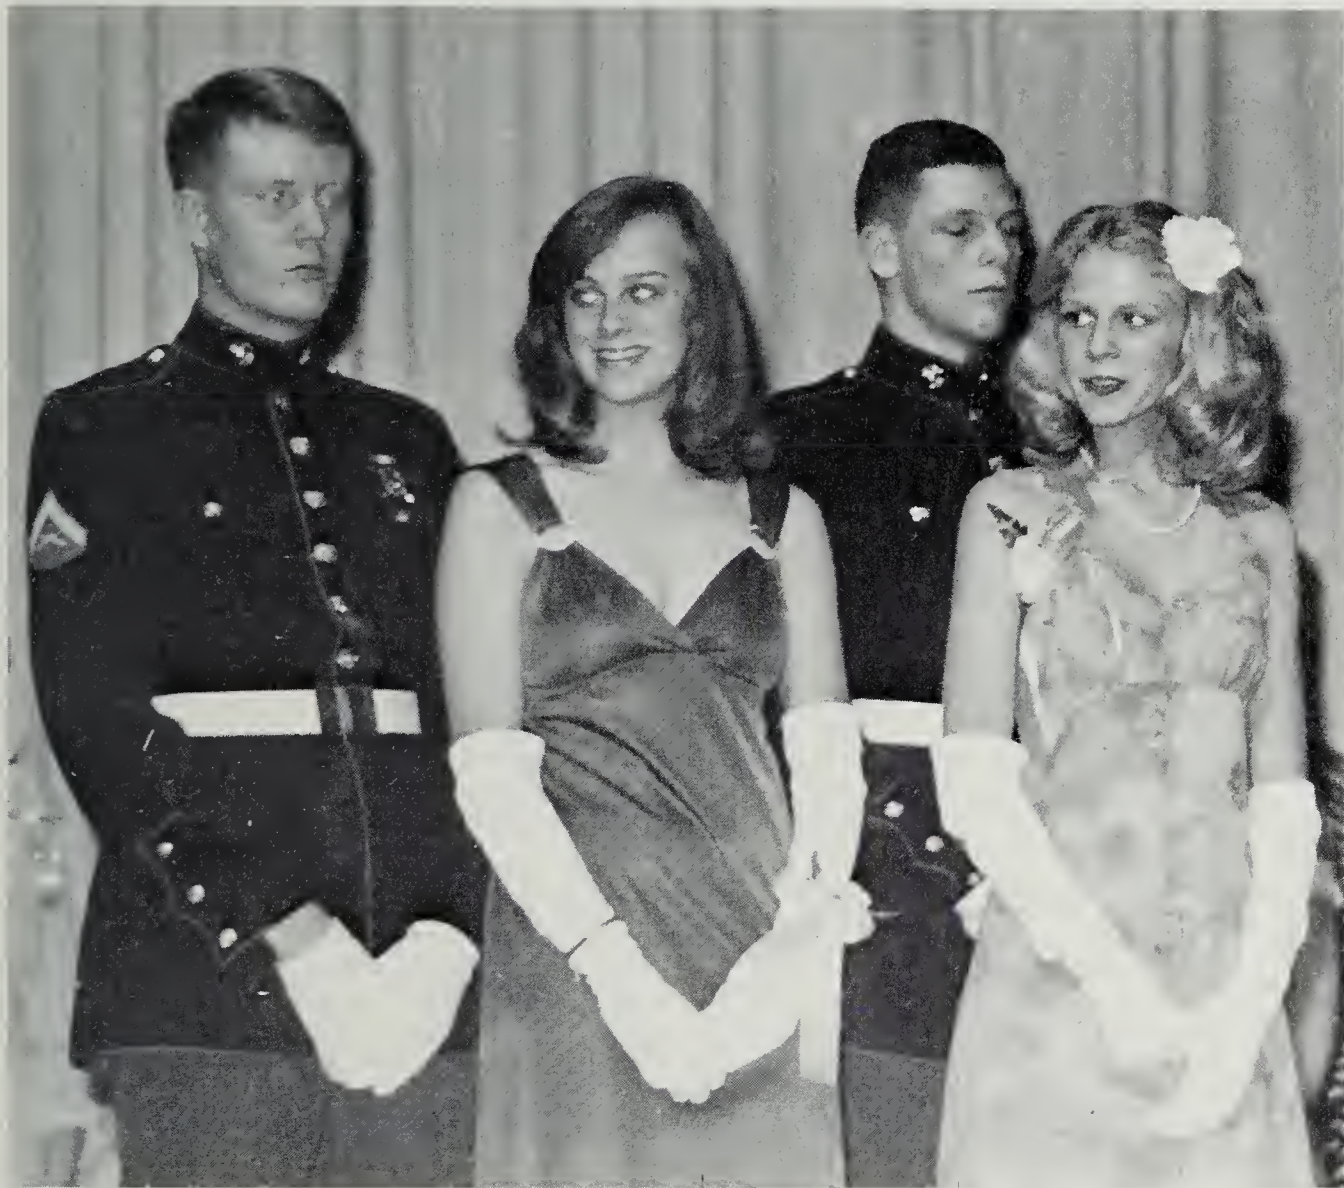

This year's Eleventh Annual "Miss Falls Church" was presented by the F.B.L.A. in January. Many girls competed for this honor. They were expected to model both a school and evening outfit, and display their talent in a special dance routine. Before the pageant, a reception was held so that the judges could become acquainted with the girls. In all, the girls were judged on appearance, poise, and personality. Four finalists made up "Miss Falls Church" and her court. This year's winner was Tina Weissenborn. Sandy Clark was voted "Miss Congeniality."

FC Dances Prove Profitable To Many Clubs

1975-1976 was a great time for dances. Sock-hops were back, and every week-end there seemed to be another organization sponsoring another dance. All the dances were well attended, with the Senior Class especially being helped financially by holding three dances, one more than usually allowed. "Sound Tech" proved to be a popular band, providing the music for many of the dances.

Couples take a "break" through this slow dance.

Thespians Produce Melodrama

Eric Walck, Mary Jane Keegan, Sandi Vickroy, Karen Webber.

The Thespian Honor Society put on a grand show in February. It was a melodrama called "Dirty Work at the Crossroads." The dirty work in the story was done by one Munro Murgatroyd, a big city villain of the first degree, who persisted in pursuit of our heroine, Nellie Lovelace . . . He also had it in for her clean, stalwart boyfriend, Adam Oakhart. All this added up to a hilarious romp, with the audience hissing the villains and cheering on the lovers. A shortened version of the play was also performed at a local community dinner. The Tespians added one more theatrical feather to their cap with "Dirty Work at the Crossroads."

“Speak Softly Love” Provides The Proper Background For 1976 Sweetheart Dance

Amid the romantic atmosphere of “Speak Softly Love”, couples danced to the music of “Inside Straight”. This traditional dance, sponsored by the Student Government, fell exactly on February 14th. The gayly decorated cafeteria along with the unusually warm weather helped to provide the proper mood for this special night.

Field Trips Stir Interest

One of the most appreciated events of the otherwise uneventful school routine was the field trip. It took students beyond the brick walls to explore the sights and sounds of the Washington area. Capitol

Hill provided an excellent setting in which to study the workings of government. Perhaps the most popular field trip was the biology trip to National Zoo. There was also the annual American Civ. trip to Woodlawn Plantation.

Perhaps the winner for most trips was Humanities, which took good advantage of the cultural activities around Washington. Field trips throughout the year showed us new directions and new ideas.

Hungry Students Savor The Flavor of Real Soul Food

The Fifth Annual Soul Dinner and Variety Show, sponsored by the Human Relations Club, proved to be a huge success for the large number of persons who participated. People savored real "Soul Food" and then traveled to the auditorium for the Variety Show. Mr. Larry Bryant, from WTTG news, was present to host the show. With modeling and singing as the entertainment, the entire night proved to be enjoyable to all. Much thanks was given to the members who worked long and hard to make the Soul Dinner a success.

Prom Tops Off 1976 School Year

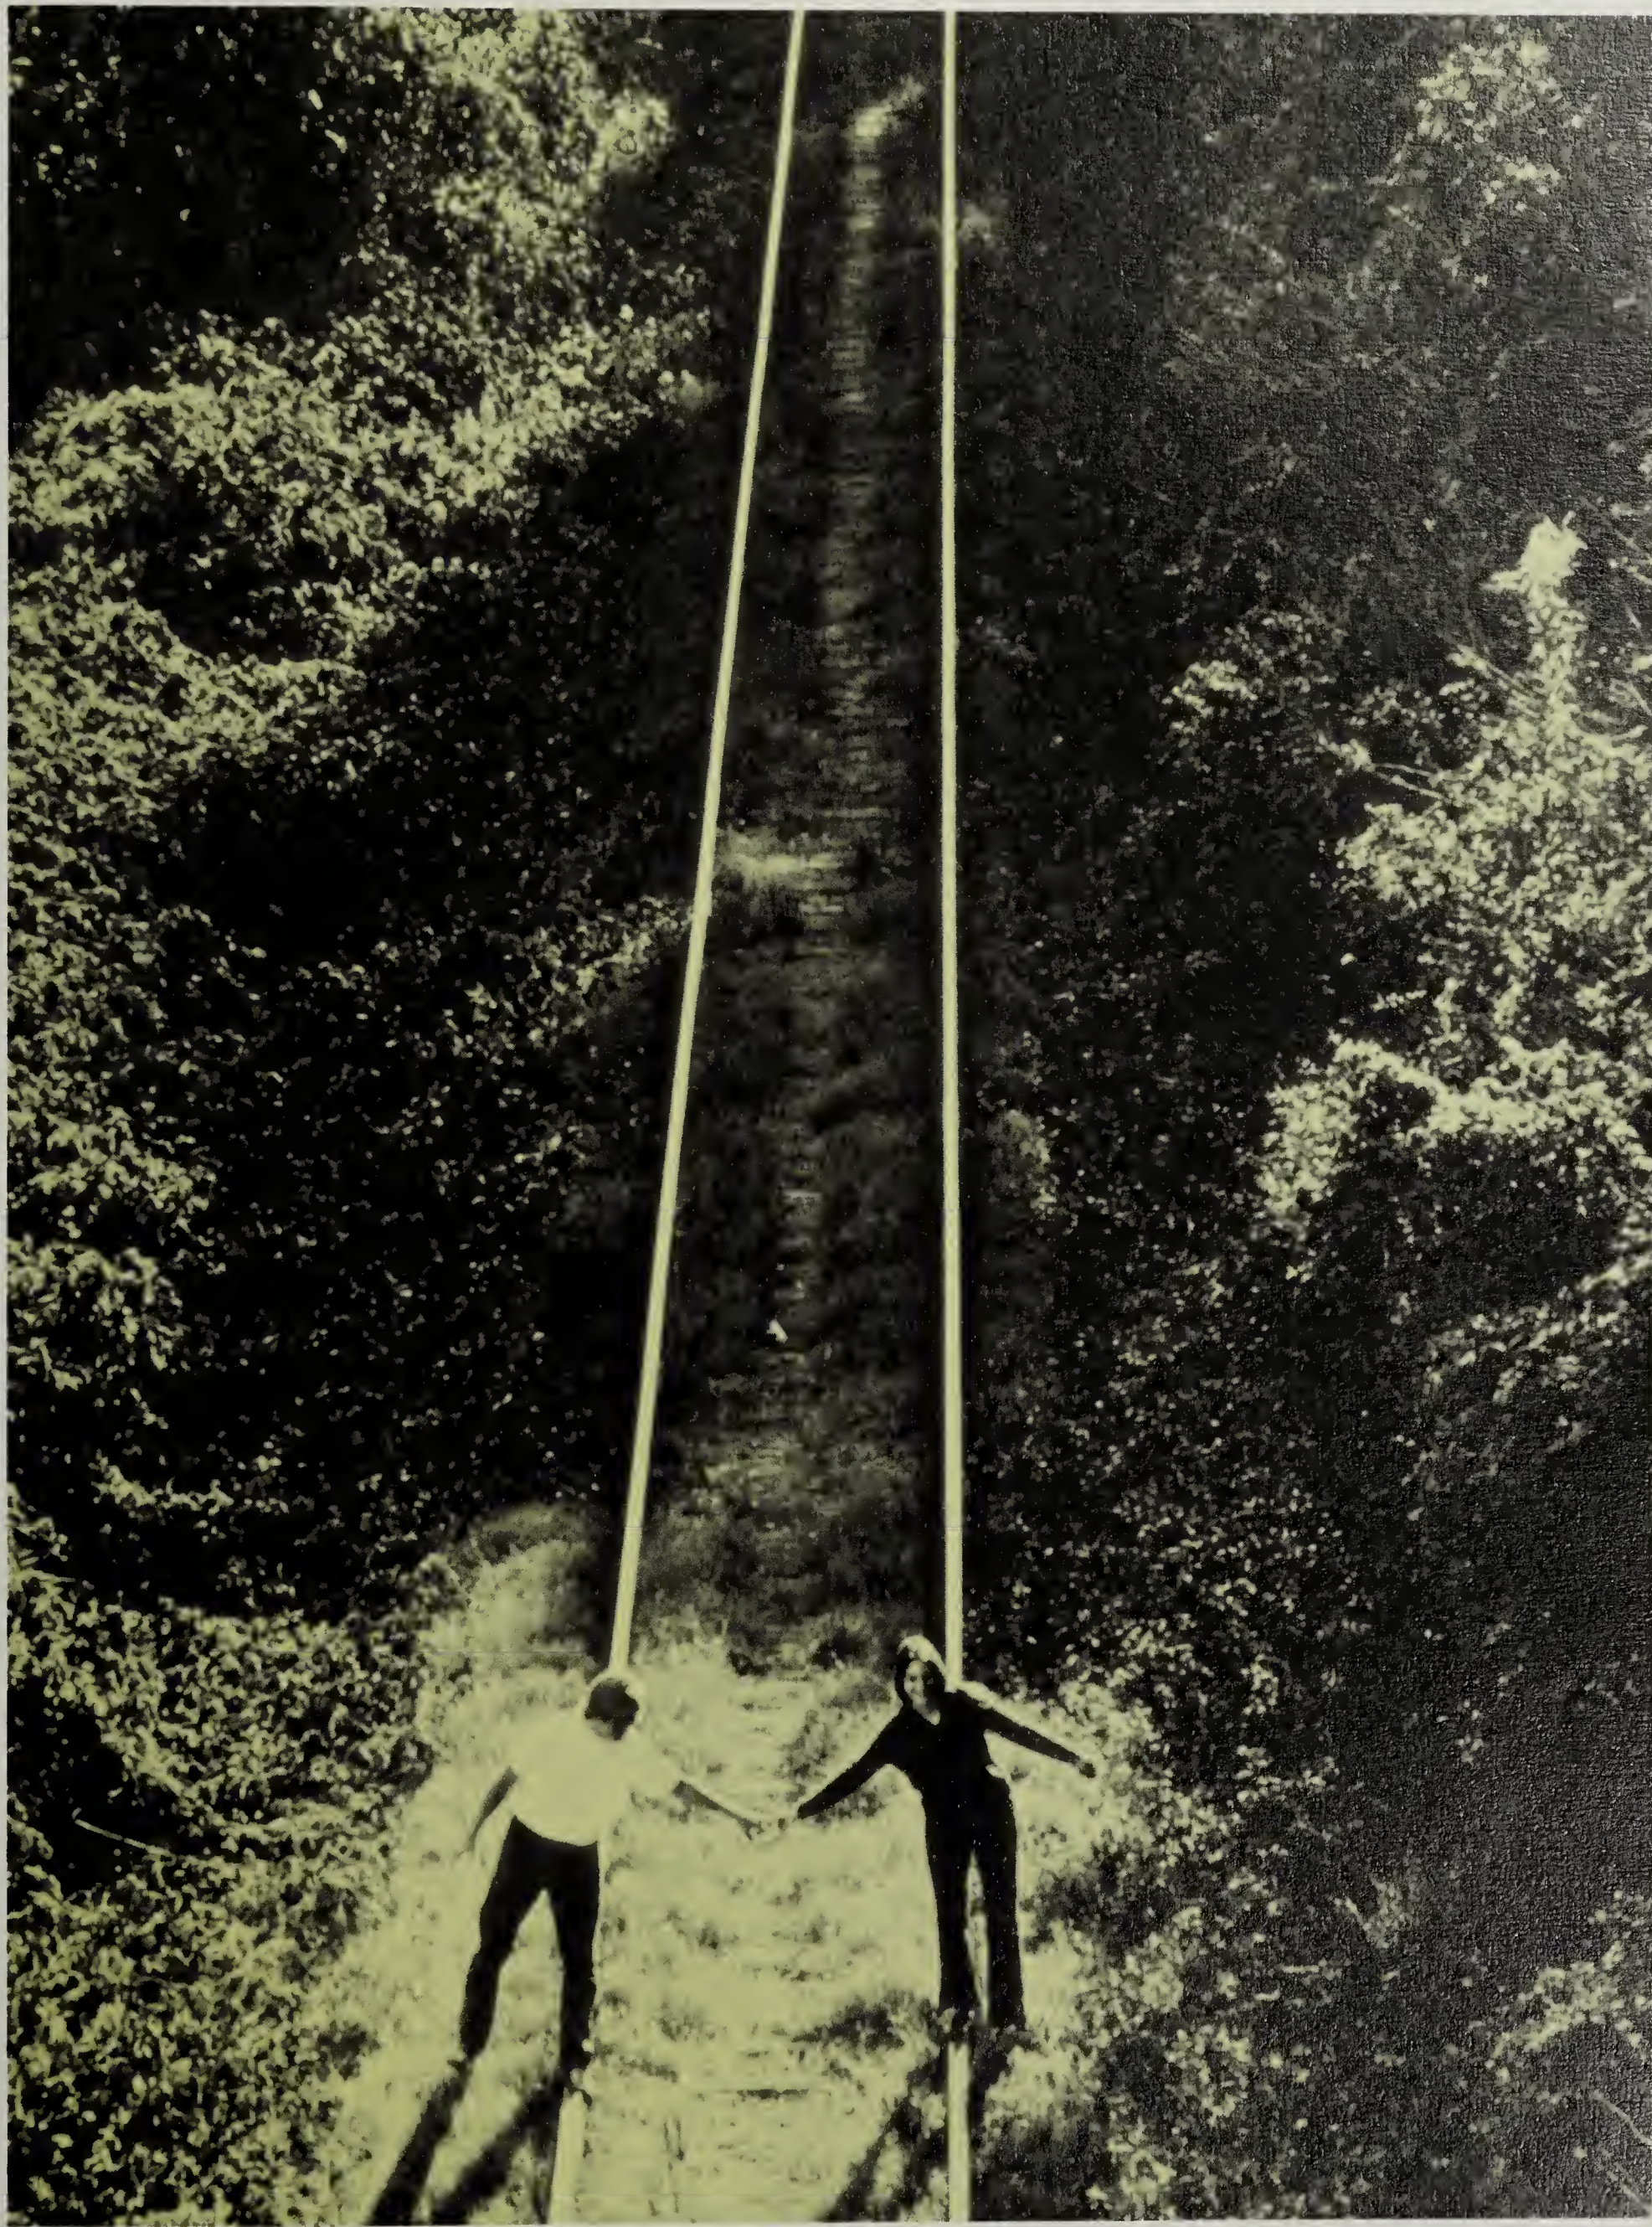

The Ramada Inn of Old Alexandria provided the perfect setting for the traditional Junior-Senior Prom. The romantic atmosphere of this dance was greatly enhanced by the long summery gowns and the handsome tuxedos. The Theme, "Precious and Few", was aptly chosen since the dance site overlooked the Potomac River. Each couple was sure to remember this evening as the perfect way to end the school year. This farewell gift from the Junior Class will always be remembered by the Class of '76.

Varsity Jags Roll To 6-4 Season

The Falls Church Varsity Football team enjoyed great success this season. They won as many games this year as in the past three years combined. Their 6-4 record was the first winning record since the Class of '76 arrived here. The Jaguars were predicted to be an also-ran in the Potomac District as in past years. Coach Jim Dick and the players showed everyone that they were winners by placing third in the district. Coach Dick's efforts did not go unnoticed as he was voted Potomac District Coach of the Year. The players who made the All-District team were senior linebacker Randy Balderson, senior defensive end Dave MacDonald, senior tackle Bob Stratton, and junior runningback Charlie Gray. Making All-District honorable mention were seniors Mike Lloyd, tight-end; Scott Silvester, guard; Bill Askin, quarterback; and Rob Tomasino, linebacker.

The main factor toward a winning season was a more explosive offense. This unit was led by quarterback Askin and runningback Charlie Gray. Gray was one of the top producers in the district this year. The receiving corps for the Jags, Mike Lloyd, Jeff Wagoner, Jack Hurlock, and Norman Burwick, gave the offense the added threat of a passing attack. Backup quarterback Jim Simpson performed well when he was brought in under pressure.

The fine Jaguar defense, led by standouts Randy Balderson, Dave MacDonald, and Gary Caylor, kept opponents' offenses at bay all season. Balderson could be counted on to nail one or two running backs hard, making their running less effective. The defense will have to rebuild next year to keep the fine defensive tradition alive. The only returning starters to next year's team will be Mark Askin at middle guard and Steve Bourne at defensive back.

The Junior Varsity team, although smaller in number than in past years, finished the season with six wins and only two losses. The team was undefeated in district competition, giving them the Potomac District championship. Their only two losses came at the beginning of the season, and they had a five game winning streak at the end of the season. Leading the offensive charge were quarterback John Buchan, running back Dave Gatton, and end Jeff Walters. The defense, which was consistently aggressive, was led by linebacker Danny Richard, linebacker Mike MacNevin, safety Brad Lazarus, and end Mike Louis.

In the final game of the season, Falls Church needed a victory over Fairfax to win the district title. MacNevin played an outstanding game and helped bring the title to the team with a 12-0 victory. Coach Bob Herb did a fine job in utilizing limited resources to bring success.

The Freshman Football team of 1975, coached by Al McCulloch, finished their season without a loss. The team kept up the tradition of outstanding Frosh football records. Captained by Jeff Harris and John Lee, the Baby Jags combined an excellent offense with an outstanding defense. The inside-outside duo of Gary Beach and Harris racked up large amounts of yardage and many points. The defense, led by the fine play of Kevin Kiggins and Jeff Schrader gave up only 20 points all year. They continually shut down the opposition's offense, making breaks which the Jag offense capitalized on.

In his tenure as head Freshman coach, Al McCulloch has only suffered through three losses. His three year record is 16-3.

Larry Miller Takes District Crown

The 1975 Cross Country team, although not very successful as a team, had some fine individual performances. The team record for the year was 2-3. However, the top three men Senior Larry Miller, Senior Gary Flather, and Junior Dave Goodwin, turned in consistently good performances. In the district meet, Gary Flather ran to a seventh place finish. Larry Miller had many superb finishes. He took second in the Georgetown Invitational, and third in the Fairfax County Meet. Larry brought the individual District Championship home with a fine run. He followed this up with a second place finish in the Regionals.

Girls Tennis Team Attains Winning Season, Honors

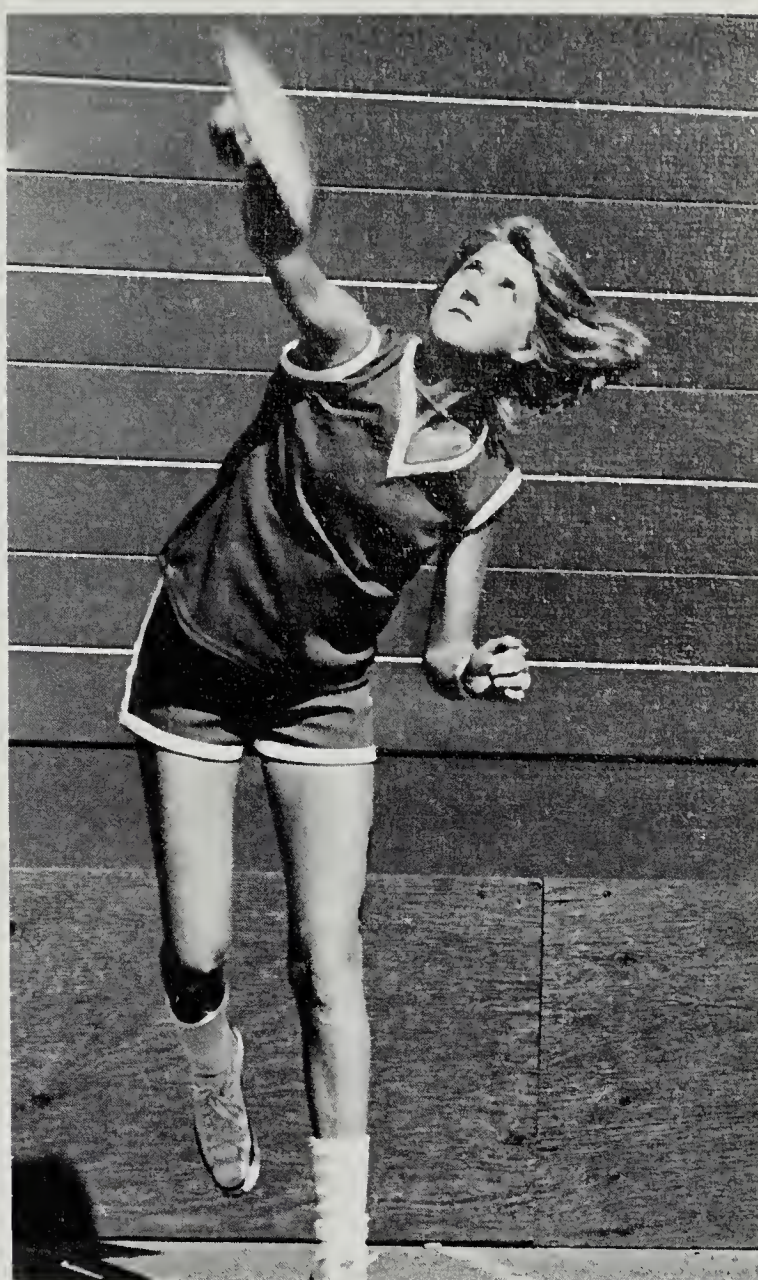

The Girls Varsity Tennis Team enjoyed a winning season for the first time in many years. The team was directed by first-year coach Nancy Weisgerber. They participated in the new Potomac District, which proved to be a little easier than the old Northern District. Sophomore Carol Daniels took her second district title in as many years, easily defeating all opponents. She had a 10-0 record during the regular season. She and Senior Leslie Hershey teamed up to take the district doubles title. In regular season play, they had a record of 8-0. The team is looking to the future, as the team will lose only three seniors, Leslie Hershey, Roxane Brocato, and Kay Schindler. Returning will be the number 1, 2, and 3 players, Carol Daniels, Mary Ellen Bennett, and Kathy Thompson.

Over Stuart by only one-half of a game, this skillful team finished their season with a 5-2-1 record. The team, made mostly up of Seniors, worked extremely well together under the coaching of Miss Sandy Reynolds.

Not to be outdone by the Varsity team, the Junior Varsity team also finished as number one. Their coach, Miss Pat Jones, brought this group of athletes into a workable and winning hockey team.

The Varsity Basketball team was blessed with the tallest players in the district this year. The Jags took full advantage of this heights as they never could have in the past. High scorers Mike Lloyd and Paul Keller had the skill to either play the inside game or go outside and bomb away. The team in general had an up and down season. They got off to a slow start in the non-district battles, winning their first two, then hitting a slump. By the time the district games started, it appeared that the team was ready. They won five in a row, beating each team in the district once. They then won only one of their next five games, putting them in third place in the district. The Jags ended their season losing to Marshall in the first round of the district tournament.

The team, coached by Mr. Spencer and Mr. Whitworth, had a great height advantage, and should have done better. Next year, the height will be back, and Charlie Gray will still head the offense. Senior Mike Lloyd's scoring and Steve Matthesen's rebounding will be missed, along with Senior Pete Davis. Hopefully, the team can win the district title next year.

The Junior Varsity Basketball team had one severe problem, lack of height. Only two players could hit the boards with any effectiveness. The team could never seem to get their offense untracked, because many travelling and palming violations were called on them.

George Manion, one of the bright spots on the team was bothered by nagging knee injuries. Another standout, freshman Ashley Sharman was brought up to Varsity during the season.

The mighty Jaguar fast break.

The Freshman Basketball team this year found out quickly what high school ball was all about. Endless hours of conditioning add up to being fit enough to do anything. New Freshman coach Wally Ake instilled in the minds of the freshmen that there was a very physical side to basketball, and it can be as effective as pure shooting. Although being a low scoring team, they could provide much excitement.

Girls' Varsity Suffers Through Mediocre Season

The girls' Varsity Basketball team, under Coach Reynolds, did not live up to expectations this year. A talent-laden squad which never jelled.

The girls played their home games in the boys' gym this year in hopes of getting better crowds to cheer for them. There was not much to cheer about, however, as the team blew leads in the fourth quarter.

The team will lose only three seniors from this year's team. They are hoping that the experience and knowledge gained this year will be put to better use next year.

The girls' JV Basketball team had a spectacular season in going undefeated. The JV, under the guidance of new coaching, Miss English, whipped through a tough schedule and overcame great pressure to produce an unblemished record. Sparked by high scorer Martha Metcalfe, the team molded together to form a single unit. Teamwork was their formula for success, not to mention the great talent of the squad.

The team this year was almost evenly divided between freshmen and sophomores. This is a good mixture because the more experienced girls can help the newcomers a great deal. The team looks for continued success in the future as it had this year.

Mighty Jaguars Roll to District Title

The Varsity Wrestling Team had a highly successful season, yet still somewhat disappointing. The Jags were one of the dominant powers in the Northern Region this year, but did not come away with a Regional title. The team lost only one dual meet, to Lake Braddock, the Regional champs. They won the Christmas Invitational Tournament which they sponsored, beating tough teams from Douglas Freeman, Blue Ridge, and Robinson.

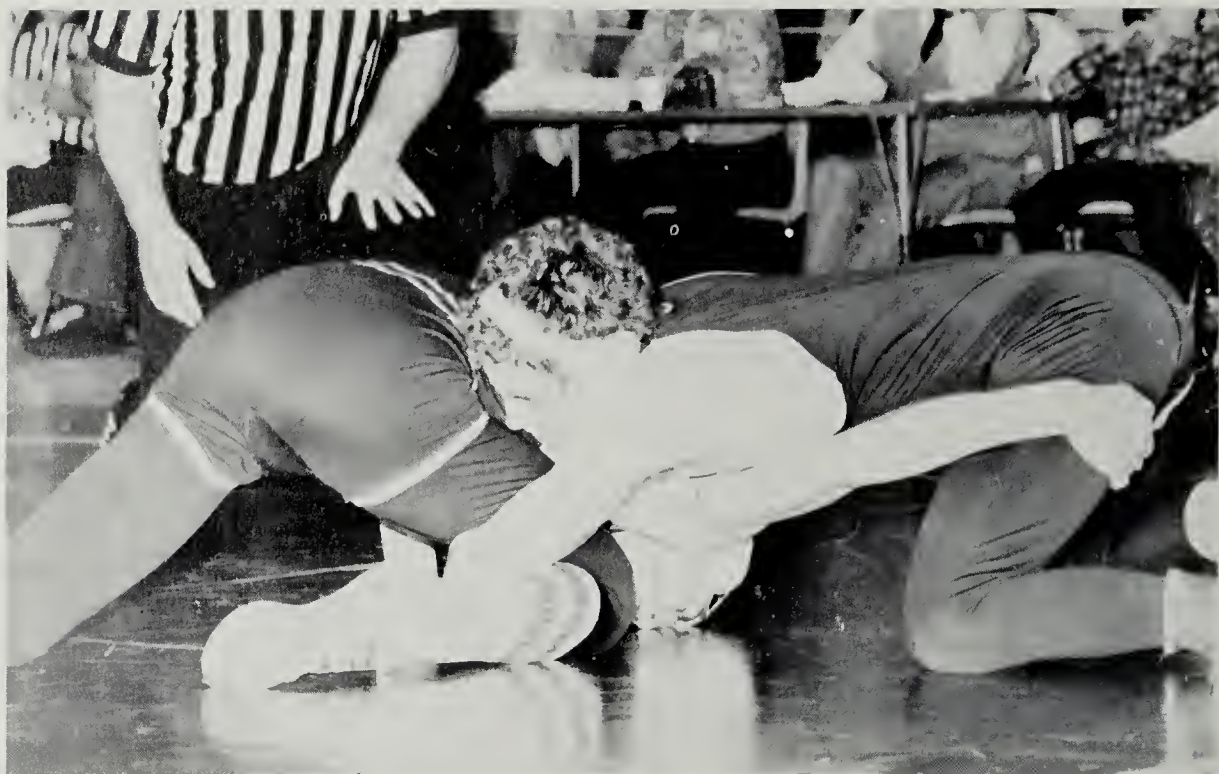

The Jags went undefeated in the Potomac District dual meets, and held the District Tournament on their home mat. The team crushed all other schools and came away with seven individual district champs in the twelve weight classes. These were freshmen Steve Passino at 98 pounds, junior Bob Passino at 105, sophomore John Hanrahan at 126, senior Greg Stevens at 132, senior Jon DuBois at 138, senior Bob Bendict at 155, and junior Charlie Allen in the unlimited weight class. Sophomore Sam Smith took a third place at 112 pounds. Junior Rob Mowson, 119 pounds, and sophomore Dan Wade, 185 pounds, each finished fourth in the tournament. All of these wrestlers, plus senior Wes Gallahan, advanced to Regionals.

The Falls Church team took third place in the Regionals, being nosed out of second by Robinson. The Jags did well in the early rounds, and advanced five wrestlers to the championship finals. By this time, Lake Braddock had first place locked up, but the Jags were in good shape to finish second. In the finals, many close calls went against the Jags and they managed only one victory out of five matches. Greg Stevens was the only Jag to capture an individual championship. Bob Passino, John Hanrahan, Jon DuBois, and Charlie Allen all took seconds. Bob Benedict fought back from an earlier defeat and took third place. The losses in the finals cost F.C. a second place team finish, and they had to settle for third.

The Regional finishers went to the state tournament where the Jags fought to a seventh place team finish. Only Bob Passino and John Hanrahan could manage third place finishes in what turned into a fiasco for the whole Northern Region.

The Junior Varsity wrestlers kept up the tradition of excellent teams preceding them. The JV program is primarily a teaching one. Coach Wilcox and Coach Valentine teach the younger wrestlers new moves and strategies. The matches with other JV teams give these wrestlers the chance to try out the moves in a real match, preparing them for Varsity competition.

Winning wrestling teams are almost expected at Falls Church, and this year's team was far from a disappointment. Some of the JV wrestlers at FC would be good enough to wrestle varsity at other schools, which is a tribute to the depth of the wrestling program at Falls Church.

The Freshman wrestling team does not receive as much credit as the Varsity or JV, even though they endure the same long, hard practices. They are the lowest of the wrestlers at Falls Church, but at any other school, they would be among the best of the JV wrestlers.

Some of these Frosh have aquired the skills of the sport, lacking only the experience which is very valuable. The Freshman matches provide them a chance to gain experience, and also to feel that special pride comes from representing your school.

The gymnastics team, under the direction of new coach Alice Gooley, had a good season this year. The hard working gymnasts strived to combine good tumbling skills with grace and poise. Most of the girls competed last year, and are seasoned veterans.

Four events make up a gymnastics meet, the balance beam, uneven parallel bars, vaulting, and free exercise. Some of the girls were specialists, such as Beth Fortner on the uneven parallels. A gymnast who excels in all events is named the best all-around performer. Doing well all-around for the Jags this year was Larrie Watkins.

The Swim Team this year competed in the super-tough Northern District during the dual meet season. Although the dual meet record was not outstanding, swimming against the best teams helped the Jags prepare for the Potomac District Tournament.

The divers did not enjoy great success this year, but hope to do better in the future. Led by the LaRow brothers, Mike and Mark, about 20 swimmers competed in the regional and state tournaments. The state tournament was held in Charlottesville.

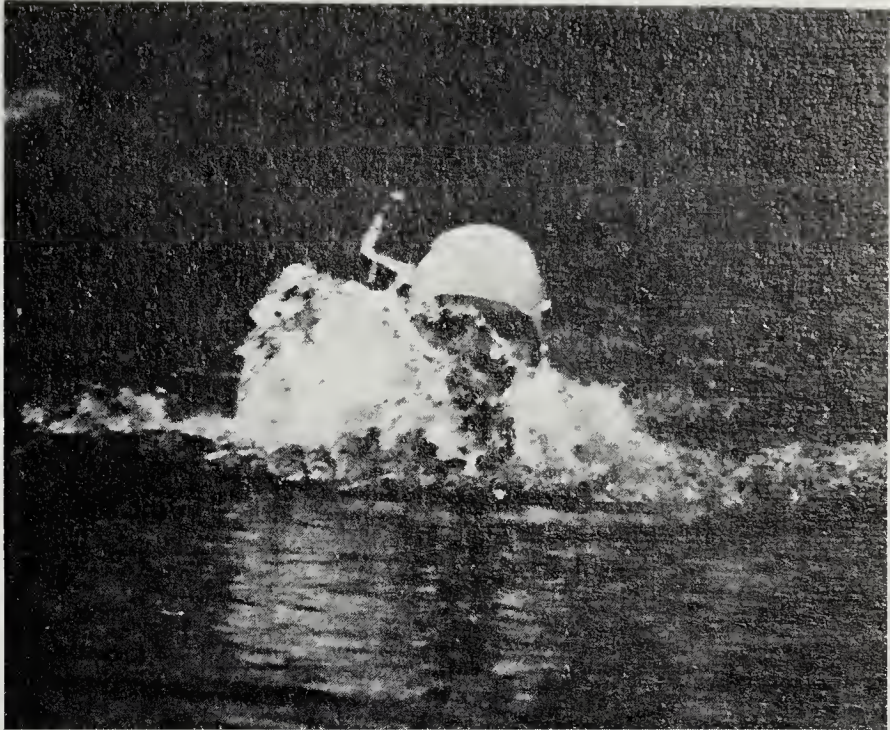

Only Falls Church, Stuart, and Madison fielded teams for the Potomac District. To even things out, each of these teams was placed in one of the other districts.

The team is also looking to the future as most of the team will return next year. Many young swimmers gained valuable experience in interscholastic competition and will be really prepared next year.

The mighty Falls Church trackmen, led by Larry Miller, demolished five other district contenders to take the title. Our stars scored more than twice as many points as the nearest competitor. Miller doubled in the one and two mile events. He was upset in the two-mile, but took first in the mile. All of the relay teams were outstanding, many taking firsts. The Jags were surprisingly strong in the field events. Scott Stout took a first in the pole vault and Donny Thompson skied to a first in the high jump.

The indoor trackmen will move to the outdoors in the spring, and hopefully capture the spring district title.

The Golf Team, coached by Col. MacDaniel, will be a top flight contender in matches this year. Led by returning lettermen Jim Gudger, last year's district champ; Mike Donovan, Tom Littlewood, and Dan O'Donnell, the team will have experience as well as skill. The addition of two fine players from California and Germany will also be strongholds in the powerful Jag lineup.

With practices starting in the beginning of March, the Varsity Track team kept running until the middle of May. The bad weather kept many practices indoors for these athletes. Coaches Bellos and Gooley anticipated a very good season. With a great number of returning letterwomen, they felt confident in having a very successful season.

Soccer's Popularity Is Increased By A Successful Season Of The FC Varsity Team

The Falls Church Soccer Team was in a state of confusion at the beginning of the season wondering who their coach would be. It was settled that the coach would be Mr. Valentine, assisted by the Junior Varsity coach, Mr.

Schoon. Coach Schoon was also a soccer coach last year. The team did exceptionally well this year, the reason being the addition of more players from the Annandale Select teams. The Varsity team played home games under the lights again this year, to try to bring up attendance to make soccer a more popular sport at Falls Church. The sport is catching on rapidly in the area, and the success of the team will bring the sport up to being one of the major ones at the school.

The stars of the Varsity team this year were Mark Gardiner, who was a main offensive firepower, Luis Serrano, Franco Falvo, and Steve Graine. Most of the players returned from last year, and the experience showed up in this season's success. If funds for the sport are not cut for next year, the Jaguar Soccer team will be an area power for quite a while.

Mustapha Benbrahim shows the co-ordination and skill a soccer player must possess.

As shown by this player, speed is necessary when dribbling the ball.

JV Soccer Shows Skill and Endurance in District Matches

vine, Bill Bailey, Kevin Heater, Danny Evans, Craig Stevens, David Frenkel, Coach Schoen.

Jody Rudacille sits impatiently on the sidelines.

Coach Schoen led the Junior Varsity Soccer team through a tough Potomac District. The team's advanced skill and ability contributed to its numerous wins. The freshmen and sophomores competing were very skilled in footwork, co-ordination, and knowledge of the game. These members will prove valuable to the Varsity squad in the near future.

Jimmy Brotherton shows batting form.

The Varsity Baseball team suffered many setbacks at the beginning of the season. High hopes abounded as the team only lost one starter off of last year's squad. Many of the senior players were the ones who went to the Babe Ruth World Series when they were 15. Success was imminent as practice began. Then, 5 or 6 key players were either sidelined or hampered by injuries. The team managed to overcome these setbacks and went on to a successful season in the tough Potomac District.

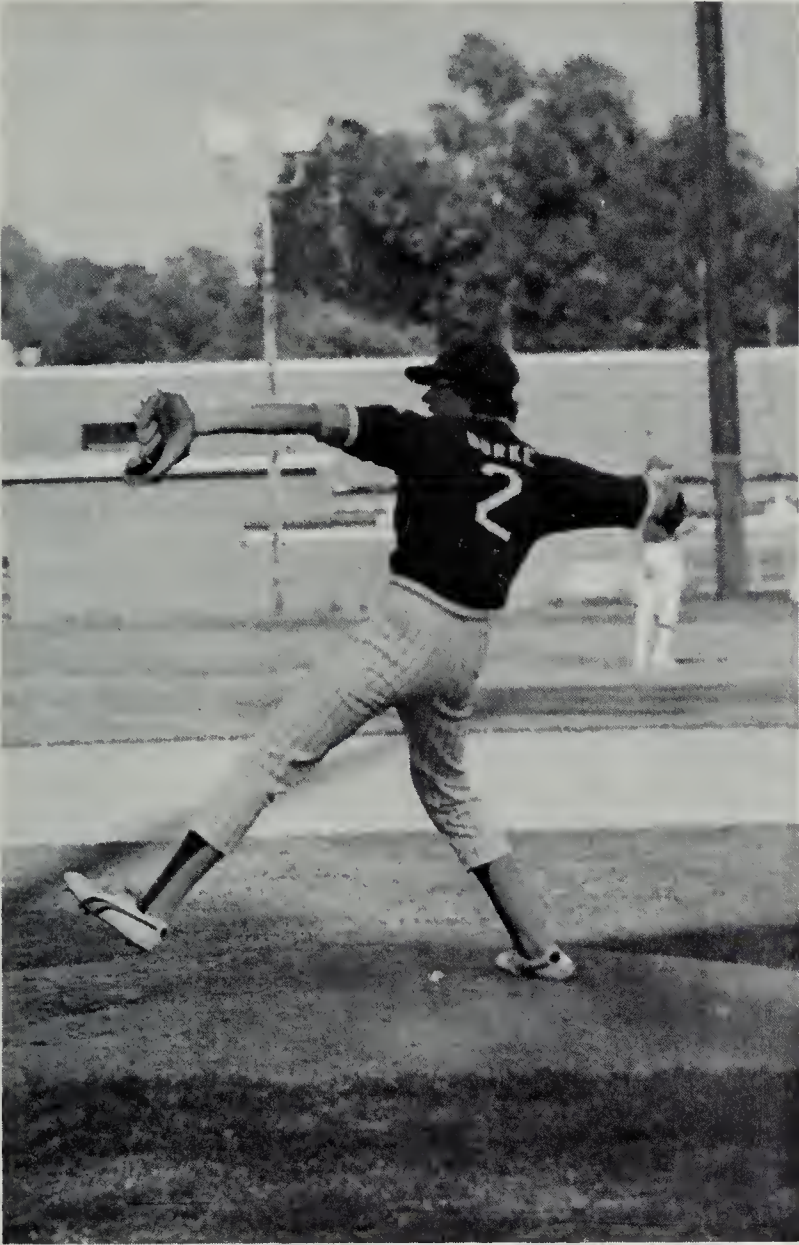

The returners from last year, heavy hitters Jim Brotherton, Rob Tomasino, Bill Askin, Randy Balderson, and Jim Blumer, led the offensive attack, which complemented the fine pitching staff. Two pitchers also carried heavy sticks this year, Jeff Richard and Mike Lloyd. They were joined by Don Zirkle, Mike Massey, John Baer, and Mike Burke, who all played well this season.

The team also had many excellent juniors who contributed to the team's success while gaining experience to take over for next year's squad. Bill Epling, Jim Simpson, Jeff Wagoner, Steve Bourne, Darrin White, along with Baer, will be the standouts on the 1977 team.

Freshmen Team Experience Adds Strength to JV Baseball

Hotdogs and baseball go together.

This year's Junior Varsity Baseball team was helped considerably by the returners from last year's freshman team, which was the first at Falls Church. The sophomores this year already had a year of high school competition under their belts. They anticipated a good season because of the togetherness of the team. Playing as a team while they were freshmen, they learned while watching the District Champion Junior Varsity of 1975.

This year, under the able coaching of Bob Herb, the team did well. Scott Reeves, Andy Hendrikson, and Jeff Hale contributed fine efforts to the team.

Tough Potomac District Poses Great Opposition For Varsity Softball

The Varsity Softball team had a difficult but a winning and successful season. The team first started practicing in March, but the poor weather and field conditions brought many practices indoors. With many experienced seniors and juniors, Coach Weisgerber was confident in having another winning season. Leslie Hershey provided the mainstay of the pitching force, while Pam Foltz kept the infield alive at shortstop. All players showed quick reactions in the field and assurance at the plate. Coach Weisgerber felt the team was capable of improving last year's record and again to go on to the district tournament.

Pitcher, Leslie Hershey, whips another one across the plate.

Spirited JV Squad Easily Handled Tough Competition

The Junior Varsity Softball team, always successful in the past, again finished with a winning record. Throughout the season, the players remained confident in facing their tough competition. Coach English kept these spirited athletes together from the first practice in March to the last game in May. In all, the Junior Varsity Softball players will prove beneficial to the Varsity team in the years to come.

Varsity Tennis Completes Another Successful Season

The Tennis team was under the direction of second-year coach Jack Spencer. It was a team with no real outstanding players, but a group of consistent performers. They always hustled, played smart tennis, and kept their concentration. These are the three basics to successful playing. Coach Spencer stressed conditioning, and, as always, his team was in the best shape of any of the teams in the area. The team this year had many returners from last year's squad, and experience was one of the main factors in the season.

Experience and Ability Lead Track Through A Winning Season

The Falls Church Track team continued its domination of Potomac District meets which carried over from indoor track. Coach Wells and Coach Morris prepared this team well for their season. Running outside, even in the snow of early March, was the standard practice. Some work was done inside, when necessary.

Larry Miller, who did well in indoor track by taking a second place in the two-mile at the state meet, also performed well during the outdoor season turning in consistently good times. The team as a whole is improving each year, and should continue to be a Potomac District power in the years to come.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT CONTINUES TRADITIONAL ROLE AS AN INTEGRAL CENTER OF STUDENT LIFE

Mr. Campbell, SG Sponsor, and President Sue Morrow cut ballots for the Sweetheart Court election.

From the beginning of the school year to the last hot days of June, the Student Government never stopped its numerous activities. With the printing of the Student Handbooks and the preparation for another school year, the SG officers worked completely through the summer. Every student immediately grew accustomed to the morning and afternoon announcements with the start of school. The SG sponsored many dances, all of which were very profitable. Throughout the year, the Student Government Room became a "Social Spot" for students to meet and share ideas during and after school. The assemblies throughout the year were all SG sponsored events to help eliminate the frustration and confusion of the average school day. As gifts to Falls Church, the Student Government has donated a special Xerox machine for use in the library. This present will be appreciated by all, teachers as well as students. To insure all of the memory to the Mighty Class of '76, the SG also painted the football bleachers a patriotic green and white. The Student Government worked steadily throughout the year and helped to make '76 the most eventful and spirited year Falls Church has had in a long time.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY ENCOURAGES ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The National Honor Society is a service club for the recognition of all honor students. Throughout 1976, it held monthly meetings for discussions with guest speakers. This club performed numerous services, one of which was tutoring. A dinner party was held near the end of 1976 for all Seniors. In all, the National Honor Society encouraged the honor students to excel in studies to promote leadership, character, and service.

SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY HOSTS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS DINNER

The Spanish Honor Society offers those students who have shown exceptional ability in Spanish an opportunity to enhance their knowledge of the culture and traditions of Spain. They continued the tradition of a Christmas dinner for its members. In the spring, they went to a Spanish restaurant, getting a taste of Spanish culture.

FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY HOLDS CHRISTMAS FACULTY TEA

Mrs. Corkey assists three French Honor Society students during a class.

Top French students broadened their insight into French life through the French Honor Society. The annual faculty party was a huge success with a wide variety of French food. The Society also went to a fine French restaurant. Last Easter the French Honor Society raised money for charity to help the needy of the area. The induction in April brought in many new members who were willing to work to keep the French Honor Society the success it is.

NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY RESTRICTS MEMBERSHIP

The academic Freshmen and Sophomores got together in the National Junior Honor Society to improve Falls Church and the surrounding community. It will be harder to become a member of this honor society as new applicants must submit a paragraph explaining why they wish to be in the National Junior Honor Society.

NJHS members study hard to keep up their academic standings.

THESPIANS PROMOTE THEATRICAL SKILL

The Thespian Honor Society recognized the theatrical talents of students at Falls Church. Thespians took part in all the productions at school, lending their advice, hard work, and fine performances. Thespians also gave a play of their own, a melodrama called “Dirty Work at the Crossroads.”

The Annual Thespian Play was the “Dirty Work at the Cross Roads.”

Interest Clubs Keep Students Attention

MATH TEAM: John Kerins, Mike LaRow, Craig Wien, Mark Szarnicki, Barbara Parmenter, Kathleen Feeney

Competing against other high schools, the top math students worked together to form the Falls Church Math Team. Being required to figure out six math problems in each meet, these students individually did very well throughout their season. With meets every other Thursday, members were always close to their math books. At the end of the year, an All-County Meet was held for the topmost math students.

Meeting together after school, the Computer Club members learned many new aspects of the computer world. They enjoyed many computer games and the making of print-outs.

Chess Club Improves Concentration

The Chess Club offered any student the opportunity to learn the game of chess. A time for a little social competition and a chance to perfect technique and strategy, gave each member enjoyment throughout the year.

"What do you mean 'King me'?" asks Mrs. Thomas to a nearby spectator.

NATIONAL MERIT FINALISTS: John Kerins, Barbara Parmenter, Todd Wien.

IT'S ACADEMIC TEAM: Todd Wien, Tina Weisenborn, John Kerins.

Three students of Falls Church gained the honors of becoming National Merit Semi-Finalists. By receiving very high scores on their Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests, they represented Falls Church on this nationwide level of testing.

The "It's Academic Team" placed a disappointing second in their television appearance in December. The all-Senior team was supported by a very spirited Jaguar Crowd.

Chosen by the faculty, the Boy's and Girl's State representatives were honored with the privilege to listen to guest speakers on government and politics. This program, annually sponsored by the American Legion, assists students to actively become a part of government affairs.

Carol and Dixie show much enthusiasm at a Jaguar meeting.

Jaguar Journal Informs Students

The staff of the Jaguar Journal had to overcome many obstacles to successfully print this monthly paper. In previous years, lack of money and support kept students from subscribing to the FC paper. This past year though, with PTA and Fairfax County funds, the Jaguar Journal Staff was able to give every student a newspaper free of charge. The paper included articles ranging from athletics to faculty and curriculum. There was a special column in which each student could easily voice his opinions through a "Letter to the Editor". Printed by the Northern Virginia Sun, the Jaguar Journal kept the staff constantly in a struggle to get the newspaper to the student body. After sketching lay-outs and writing copy, staff members then had to battle the printers to keep the Jaguar Journal from becoming lost or from being sent to another school. Sometimes the poor Falls Church staff was not successful. But, no matter what happened, the Jaguar Journal was successful in keeping students informed and interested in their school.

The purpose of the 1976 Yearbook was to provide a record of the school-year, and to portray the faces and activities of all those in the school community. In reaching for this goal, the yearbook staff experienced surprises, disappointments, pleasure and frustration. Trying to get photography organized was the editors' main problem. Thanks to industrious photographers, it all worked out in the end. The yearbook sponsor, Ms. Judy Guryansky, gave moral support and sound advice. Hard work and fun were the main ingredients of the 1976 Jaguar.

LITERARY MAGAZINE BRINGS OUT CREATIVITY

Alison Evans gives her views at a staff meeting.

The Literary Magazine provided one of the few ways for students to show their true talents and express their ideas. Its emphasis was on creativity, and it was a unique forum for the students who participated. The magazine contained artwork, prose, and poetry submitted by students. The staff decided what to use, and gave advice to young artists and writers. The Literary Magazine was another exceptional facet of life at Falls Church.

DEBATE AND FORENSICS TEAMS SPEAK OUT AGAINST OTHER SCHOOLS

DEBATE TEAM: Anna Holsinger, David Berriman, Rick McCollugh, Alison Evans, Vivek Tayal, Dean Newhouse.

With weekly coaching, and hard work, the Forensics Team competed in numerous tournaments. Participating from oratory speaking to dramatic interpretation, this team did very well against other high school teams. This year's Debate Team strived to improve their skills in disciplined argumentation, through discussions on topics, preparation, and technique. Through this competition sponsored by the Northern Virginian Speech League, these two teams built upon their oratory skills.

FORENSICS TEAM: John Elder, Holly Wilson, Betsy Dawkins, Mrs. Thomas, Kathy Wall, Alison Evans, Keith Pruitt.

LANGUAGE CLUBS BRING FOREIGN

The Spanish Club, with Mr. Ochse as the new sponsor, did many services for the school and community. The higher level Spanish students worked as tutors and teacher aides to help improve the language program. Along with this, they made plans to attend the elementary schools in order to acquaint the younger students with the Spanish language.

The German Club's decrease in size did reflect any decrease in enthusiasm. With numerous activities, both within and out of the school, this club kept its members interest throughout the year.

The spirit and enthusiasm of the Latin Club was everpresent throughout 1976. Members participated in events ranging from ice-skating trips to a huge end-of-the-year orgy. The club succeeded in its purpose of keeping Latin a living part of Falls Church.

The French Club held their club meetings on Wednesdays and occasionally enlivened them with French foods for refreshments. "A love of the good life" seems to be shared by all the French — our club included. For this reason, they frequently attended French restaurants as a group. During the 1976 year, they admirably displayed a concern for life by donating $150 to the World Wildlife Organization. The club also sponsored a French dinner in the cafeteria for the students and public.

Debbie Connor listens closely to plans for the Fairfax Hospital Christmas Party.

The Torch and Banner Society remained active in both school and community projects this past year. They continued their tradition of Teacher of the Month awards. Members also worked to keep Falls Church clean inside as well as out. TABS adopted Mrs. Scott as a "Honorary Grandmother". Through the JAGWIRE bulletin board, TABS members kept the student body informed of all social and athletic events.

"It's so clean, I can see myself!" smiles Kathy Ahearn.

TRI-HI-Y

TRI-HI-Y: Katie Van Hart, Polly Trammel, Nancy Trammel, Marylee Malone, Ann Watkins.

Even though the Tri-Hi-Y Service Club had only five members this past year, it made some good accomplishments. In October, members made "ghosties" for the teachers' mailboxes. Also, to celebrate Halloween, they gave a special party for a local Headstart school. In December, the Tri-Hi-Y co-sponsored a Bloodmobile with the Key Club. This was very successful since the student turnout was great. Throughout the year, members visited an Old Folks Home. In all, Tri-Hi-Y remained active in both school and community services.

At the beginning of the year, they held a Teacher's Tea and then acted as PTA guides on "Back to School Night". A special Christmas Party was held by the Civinettes for all underprivileged children. The Civs also collected for the March of Dimes and for the Canfood Drive throughout the school year.

The Civitan Service Club held a special back to school orientation when school re-opened in the fall. From then on, after each football game, this service club would clean up the field. In the late fall, the Civitans put on a very profitable dance. Around Christmas, the Civitans sold fruitcakes, and worked with the Salvation Army to hand out food and toys to needy families. After the holidays, the Civitans donated $10 to Freedman's Hospital for Children. In all, the Civitans proved themselves to be truly involved with the school and community.

Wesley Gallahan describes the way he felt at last night's party.

— Carol Kondracki, Carolyn Thomas, Kathy Hartell, Bonnie Crotty, Kay Schindler, Lisa Best, Joyce Ayers, Carla Alves, Donna Fritz, Becky Russell; Fifth row — Nena Delp, Nancy Olivola, Bonnie Mills, Beth Brownell, Ellen Trapp, Sandy Zeltvay, Cindy Ramsey, Sue Morrow, Janet Fauntleroy, Mar-cella Henry, Linda Bowen.

With 45 members, the Keyette Service Club re-mained a strong and active part of Falls Church. For three days out of the week, the Keyettes visited the elderly at Fairfax Hospital. Also, every Sunday, groups from this club would go to a nursing home. Active in both the March of Dimes and the De-velopment of Freedman's Hospital, the Keyettes raised money through ribbon, bake, and Stuart Voo-Doo Doll sales. The Keyettes were extremely involved this year both within and outside the school. This helped to improve their own club as well as Falls Church.

Organization is not very noticeable in any of the Falls Church clubs.

"What did she mean by that?" wonders Kelly Legate.

The Key Club worked hard this past year, devoting itself to the rebuilding of the club. The Key Club sponsored a Red Cross Blood Drive in December, which greatly helped it to gain more school support. During Christmas, this service club worked with the Salvation Army delivering gifts to needy families. Throughout the year, they helped move furniture with the ACCA.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

"But Paraguay is such a boring country; can't you give me Egypt?"

Future "Secretary of State" Marla Levin practices diplomacy.

The International Relations Club was one outlet for students to voice their opinions on world affairs. Designed after the actual United Nations, this club benefited all with its fiery discussions on world politics. This organization attended the North American and Fairfax Invitational Model United Nations as well as the Falls Church Security Council. Besides associating itself as "worldwide", the International Relations Club also worked within the school by giving a party for the ESL students.

VICA, ICT, AND DECA ENCOURAGE BUSINESS STUDENTS

The Vocational Industrial Co-operative Association along with the Industrial Cooperative Training program and the Distributive Education Clubs of America were very important programs in the business department. These programs offered the students an opportunity to gain valuable knowledge and experience in the business world while at the same time developing leadership qualities. VICA, ICT, and DECA members worked to refine their business skills through competition in such fields as advertising, display, and sales. These organizations occasionally dropped the grind of the programs for some social activities, like basketball games. In all, 1976 was a profitable year for each individual member of these organizations.

WECEP STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT CAREERS

WECEP stands for Work Experience Career Exploration Program. It was a program for ninth graders who wanted to learn and earn money at the same time. Sixteen students attended classes four periods a day, and worked on the average twenty hours a week. WECEP instruction included math and distributive education. The real learning, however, came from the jobs the students held. First, they learned what it was like to hold a regular job. Secondly, they learned about many different careers, and so would be able to find a permanent career that is suitable for them.

WECEP students also gave a Christmas party for children in the Headstart Program at an elementary school in Herndon, Virginia. The students collected and repaired toys, and then gave them to the children, resulting in many happy faces all around.

Formed to improve the relationship between administration and students and between students themselves, the Human Relations Club held discussions to relieve pressures and to stop arguments. In the middle of the year, the sponsor, Mrs. Hodge, was transferred to another school. This left the members with little support right before their annual Soul Dinner, but, the Dinner was still successful with the aid of the administration.

The Prep Club was formed just last year with IBM as their sponsor. They held weekly meetings and also went on several field trips. In all, this club had a very enjoyable year.

A part of the Rifle Team, the Rifle Club was formed to help improve marksmanship skills. Some members compete with other schools on the Varsity level, but most find ample enjoyment without the pressures of competition.

The Falls Church Lacrosse Club was a new club formed this year. It's function as a club is to help build up skills of playing lacrosse. Since this sport is becoming more and more popular everyday, the club hopes to develop into a Varsity sport within the next few years.

Skiers Enjoy Weekends of Fun and Snow in Seven Springs

One member warms up beside a roaring fire.

Ski Club members travel up the mountain on a ski lift.

Most likely the largest interest club in Falls Church, the Ski Club enjoyed a very worthwhile year. With an increased membership, this club went on a number of ski trips. In mid-January, the Ski Club journeyed to Seven Springs, Pennsylvania. There, inexperienced skiers enjoyed the snow inspite of countless falls and bruises. In February, Falls Church skiers went on another trip, with an even greater number of participants.

The Future Business Leaders of America and the Future Homemakers of America clubs were created for those persons with an interest in a future career. The FHA focused this past year on the Bicentennial. They were involved with community service projects and personal development. The FBLA also works on community service projects. This club challenges students to improve business skills — from math to spelling. Every month, contests are held to observe the improvement of the members.

The Drama Club brought together some of the zaniest and most talented people at Falls Church. The common interest was drama and the common characteristic was the ability to look at the world with a humorous eye. The club went on outings to see plays and also had some recreational activities. In December, the club put on the play, "Seven Keys To Baldpate." Members of the club not only served on this production, but also worked on others throughout the year. The Drama Club developed dramatic talents and had fun at the same time.

FROSH, JV, AND VARSITY CHEERLEADERS MAKE '76 A YEAR OF SPIRIT

FRESHMEN CHEERLEADERS: Julie Sawyer, Susan Keller, Stacey Hart, Kelly Simonds, Keely Flynn, Pam Jordan, Steffie Moreau, Mary Henderson, Garnett Gray.

ORGANIZATION? Well no, maybe not . . . But they sure do have SPIRIT!

The combination of the Freshman, Junior Varsity, and Varsity cheerleaders makes this club possible. If the success of the cheerleaders can be measured by the spirit throughout the school, then the '76 cheerleaders have been the most energetic and spirited group Falls Church has had in recent history.

In addition to the perennial pep rallies and other spirit promoting activities, the association sponsored numerous bake sales, car washes, and a very successful dance featuring "Sound Tech". During the Fall, Falls Church Cheerleaders sponsored a special clinic inviting area schools to come and compare ideas, uniforms, and cheers. Throughout the year, the cheerleaders were kept busy decorating the cafeteria lobby, cheering at all sports events, and keeping the Falls Church spirit alive.

Pep Club Raises Spirits

A busy service club, the Pep Club helped to boost school spirit by supporting various sports, both boys and girls. In the fall, members held a Pin Sale in order to raise money. They also acted as guides at the P.T.A.'s "Back-to-School Night." During Christmas, the Pep Club helped the Humanities class give a special party for children at Freedman's Hospital. Throughout the year, members assisted the Cheerleaders in decorating the cafeteria lobby to help psyche up Falls Church athletes.

Girl Athletes Work Concessions to Raise Money for Uniforms

The Girl's Athletic Association supported Falls Church athletes through many money-making projects. In the fall, members sold memo boards and "Happiness is Girl's Athletics" shirts in order to raise funds. Throughout the winter, the GAA worked the concession stand at all home wrestling matches and basketball games. Members remained involved and interested throughout the year.

Wrestlerettes Promote Spirit With Many New Members

The Wrestlerettes, a pep club specially formed to promote the Falls Church wrestling team, grew in membership to 35 members. The girls helped support the wrestlers by sponsoring a bus to Fort Hunt for one of the matches. The members also raised money for their club by selling donuts. They displayed much spirit by wearing green tee-shirts. The Wrestlerettes kept the entire school informed with wrestling news through posters and announcements.

A CLASSIC YEAR FOR THE ORCHESTRA

The orchestra met first period every day. In class they practiced together, learning from the teacher and from each other. Outside of class, they played many concerts, including a Christmas and "Back-to-School Night" concert. They also performed for the Evaluation Committee and the International Dinner. Violinist Nancy Trammell performed in the Senior Regionals. The Falls Church orchestra was represented in the Northern Virginia Youth Symphony by Carole Tilson, Becky Haslop, and John Ryke. All in all, a very talented group.

Choir Works Daily to Achieve Perfection

The Falls Church Choir practiced fourth period every day. This daily routine got their voices in tune for the many and varied programs they gave throughout the year. These included a Christmas Concert and a performance at Back-to-School Night. The choir also included the Madrigals, a select group whose beautiful harmonizing and superb voices were appreciated by all.

BAND TRAVELS TO FLORIDA FOR NATIONWIDE COMPETITION

Drum major, Dayl Burnet, leads all in a halftime show.

With the long and tiring hours that they worked through, the Falls Church Marching Band received numerous honors and countless praise during 1975-76. By winning "Silver" at Philadelphia, the marching band was considered to be one of the finest on the East Coast. Drum major, Dayl Burnet, entertained all with his colorful movements. Because of the complicated marching routines and very entertaining music, the marching band was invited down to Florida to represent Virginia in nationwide competition. No honor has ever been more deserving for any group as this.

Seniors

Section Editor: Nick Zeltvay

CLASS '76

At long last, Seniors reached the peak of their high school career. Senior privileges along with "Senior Skip Day" were only a few of the benefits for the Class of '76. The rainy weather of Homecoming ruined all hopes for a winning float since it collapsed at the beginning of the halftime show. The Homecoming Weekend was not a total disaster for the Seniors since the Homecoming Dance proved to be very profitable. But, this money alone was not sufficient for the funds needed for graduation. Lack of money, along with support, presented a problem to the class officers. To raise money, Seniors sponsored many dances throughout the year, of which there was a great turnout of students.

The Seniors were not allowed to graduate at Wolf-Trap as in years past, so amid much controversy, they voted for the Falls Church football field for their graduation site. By ending their high school career at their own school, Seniors received diplomas representing the countless challenges they had faced throughout the four years at Falls Church.

Secretary Mary Jane Keegan laughingly handled the pressures of holding down two jobs.

Having to fight off the press was a constant struggle for President Cathy Stevens.

Lack of money posed no worries for Vice-President Bev Kobayashi.

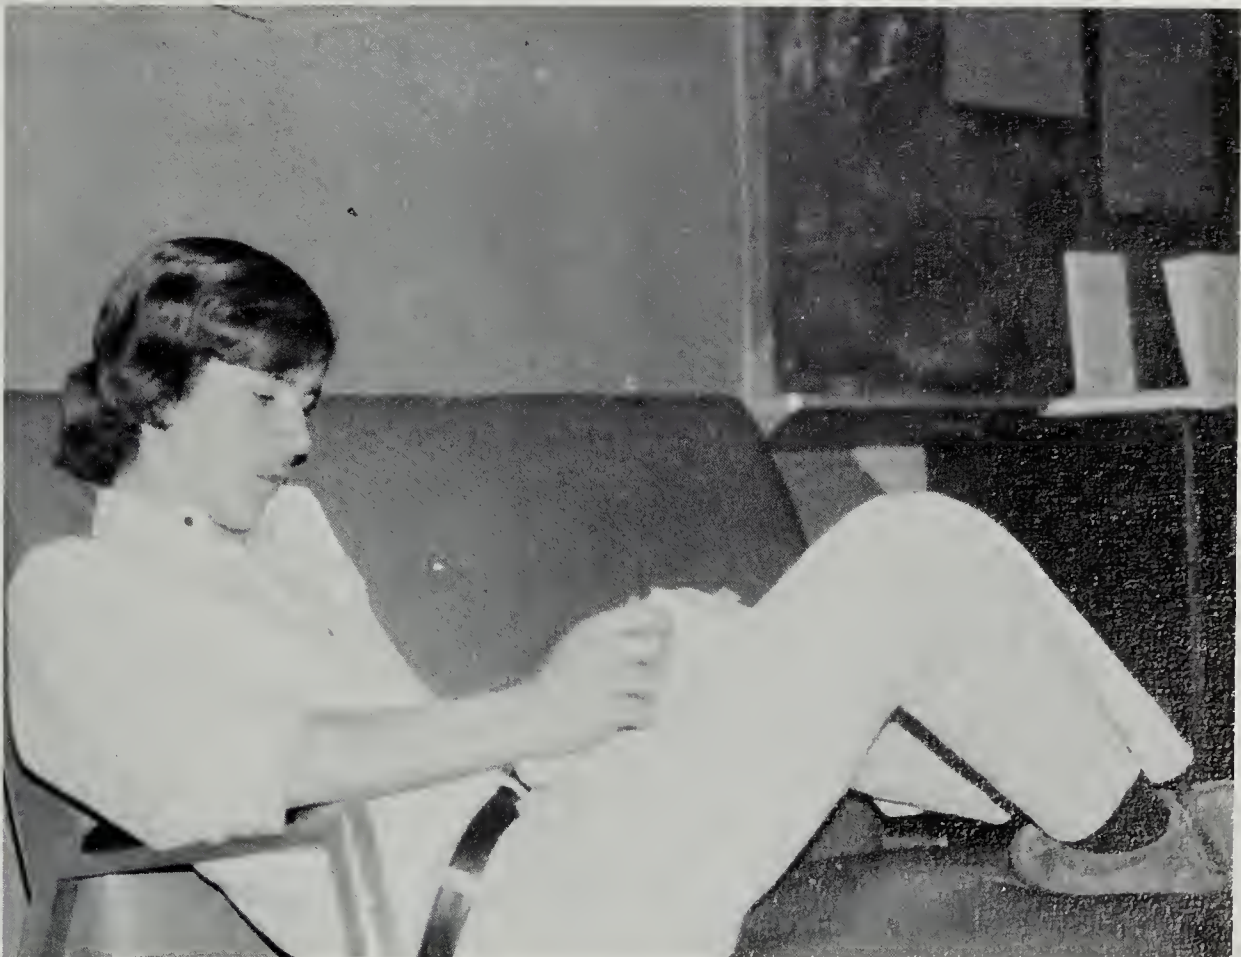

Trying to hide from money-hungry officers, Senior sponsor, Mr. Murphy, hides behind a group of lockers Treasurer Cheri Gay smiles at the thought of selling the school for the needed money for graduation.

Administrative sponsor, Mr. Stepp, wonders whether he should buy another purse to match his blue suede shoes.

Cabinet Officer Robert Buckhorn displays only part of the spirit and enthusiasm generated by the Class of '76.

LIFE AT FALLS CHURCH . . .

Tim Sheridan doesn't seem to like homework.

Climbing the ladder of success?

At least someone is excited by English class.

The daily wait for the late buses.

Is sharing a locker like going steady?

Overcrowded classes were a problem.

Another great Dwayne Lansdown joke.

Talented Falls Church students make up a new dance.

Charlie Allen having a good time.

" 'Raise me five' is not correct English."

Chaos as usual at the main office.

'77

The major highlight of this year was the Prom which was held in the Ramada Inn. The Juniors worked diligently in their Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior years to earn enough money to put on the Prom. It turned out to be a great success.

Highly successful money-making activities were the dues drives, participation in the magazine drive, ribbon sales, the Ring Dance, and the Third Annual Variety Show.

Another highlight of the year was ordering class rings. In the spring, the Juniors received their long awaited rings which headed them in the direction of mighty "Seniorhood".

Students take advantage of the freedoms of the cafeteria.

Learning the alphabet is hard, but students catch on fast.

The Sophomores directed their activities in the 1975-1976 year towards earning enough money to put on the Prom in their Junior year. They held various dues drives to help them in this goal. The traditional Sophomore Dance came in January, featuring the band, "Odyssey". A candy sale and a Valentine's Day flower sale added cash to the treasury. Imagination marked the second year for Falls Church Sophomores, directing them towards a successful high school career.

Becky Short, Vice-President; Allison Price, Cabinet

Officer; Robin Hemlepp, President; Jane Scott,
Treasurer; Carrie Washburn, Secretary.

'79

The largest freshman class ever at Falls Church adjusted well to high school life. Freshmen got right into things with dues drives and bake sales. Selling daffodils and washing cars also helped the class to earn money. An informal dance in the spring capped the year's activities. Baby Jag football came in first in district. Freshmen headed in the right direction from the very beginning, and though the halls were a little more crowded, the school was glad to have them aboard.

IN MEMORIAM
JOSEPH ROY WEBB, JR.
1958-1976

Happy times and bygone days are never lost . . .

In truth, they grow more wonderful within the heart that keeps them.

K. Andrew

This yearbook is dedicated in loving and happy memory of our friend Joe.

Directions

All of us have a goal towards which we are striving, in fact, several goals. Some are short term, winning a race or a game. Other goals take longer to reach, involving more work and organization. Some goals we never reach, hard as we might try.

What keeps us going? Our sense of direction. Knowing that we will never be supermen, we still work towards top physical condition and mental sharpness, if only for ourselves and no one else. Some of us want to be nuclear physicists, others aspire to be pumpkins. It is all in our choice of Direction.

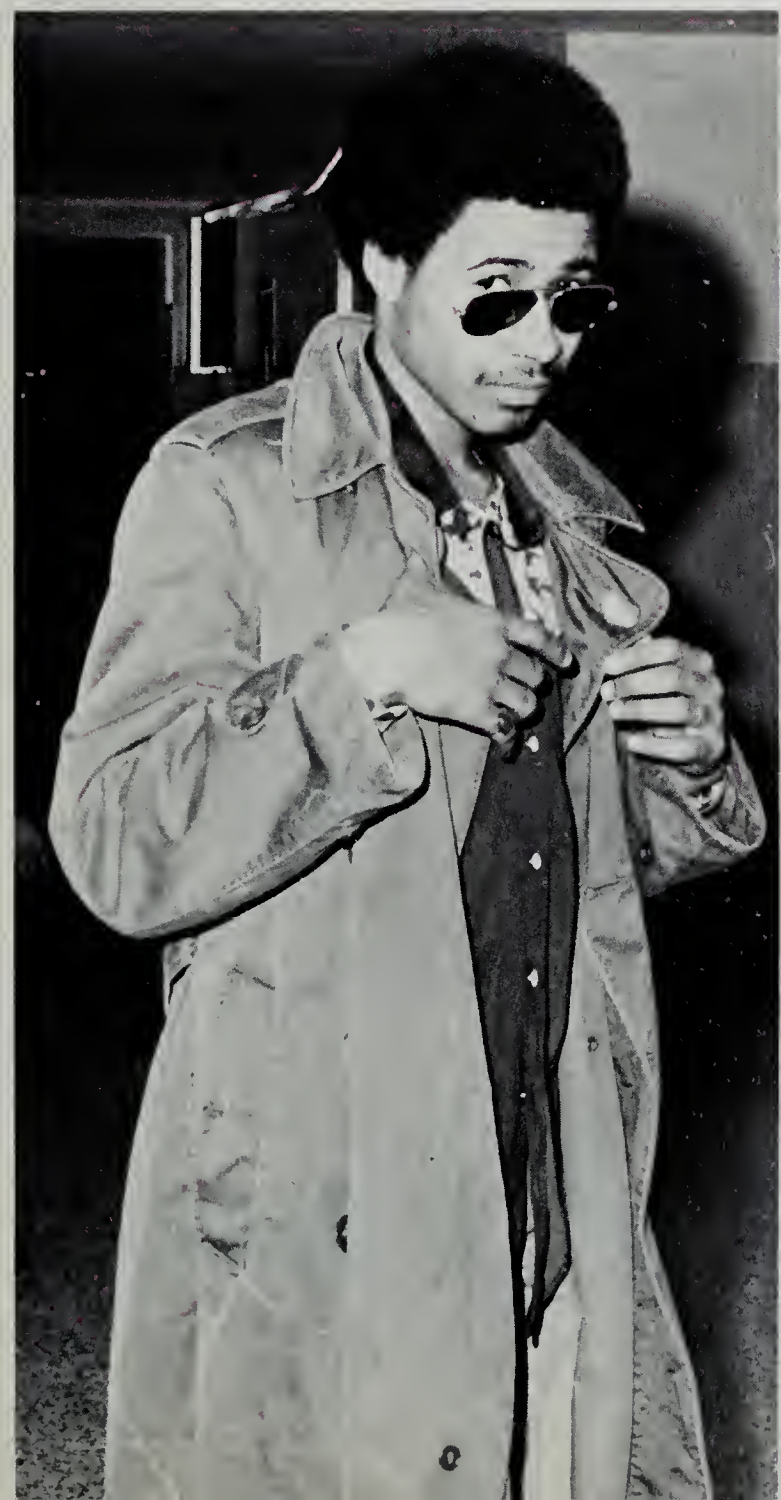

Directions

Being at Falls Church directed us to give a part of ourselves for the sake of others. All of us realized that in order to achieve total fulfillment from Falls Church, we had to listen to others before thinking of ourselves. Steps toward giving a part of ourselves were shown through donations of precious time and energy. By entertaining or listening to others, we helped to relieve their pressures and worries. Patience and friendliness helped us to make it through the year, and directed us closer to our own goals.

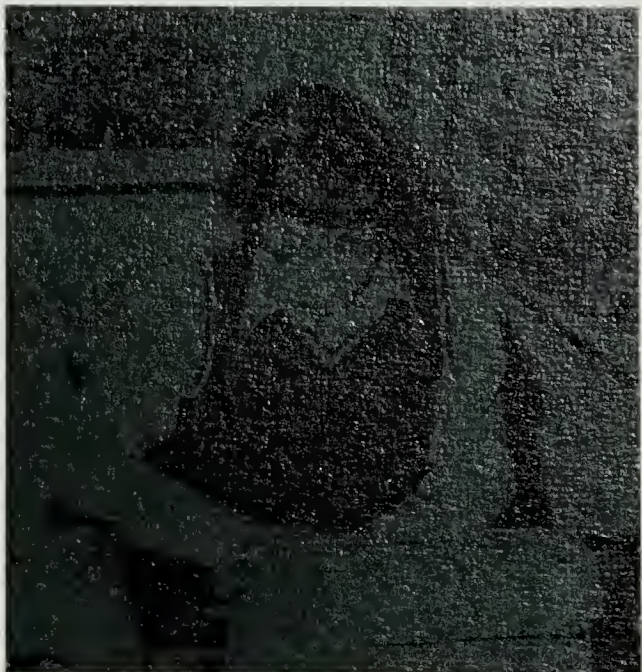

Directions

What is growing up?

Sorrow, determination, surprise, leadership, decision-making, enjoyment, entertainment, youth, victory all form a part of our growth.

From our childhood to our last days of high school, we move in the direction of adulthood. We each take our own route. We arrive at our destinations at different times and in different situations. Life is too short a time to remain still. Decide which direction you must take and move. It is never too late.

DIRECTIONS

The year has ended.

Lockers must be cleaned. Books must be shelved. Halls must be emptied. And for the Seniors, friends must say good-bye.

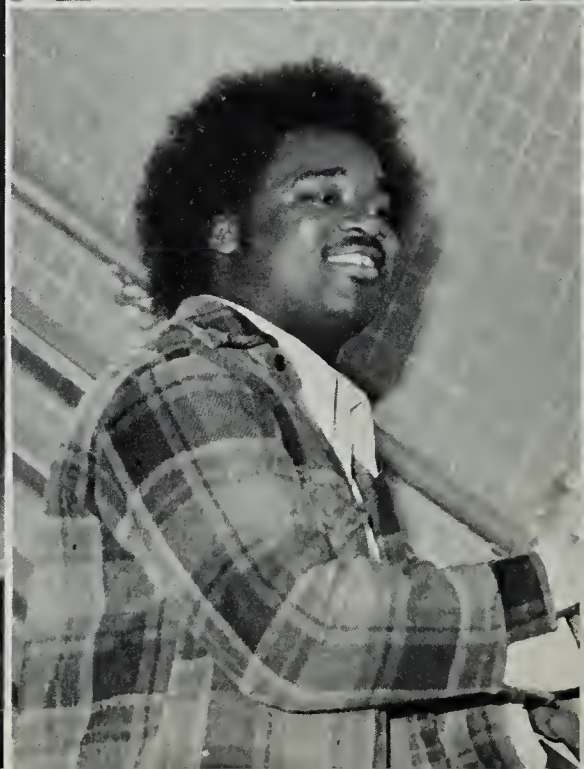

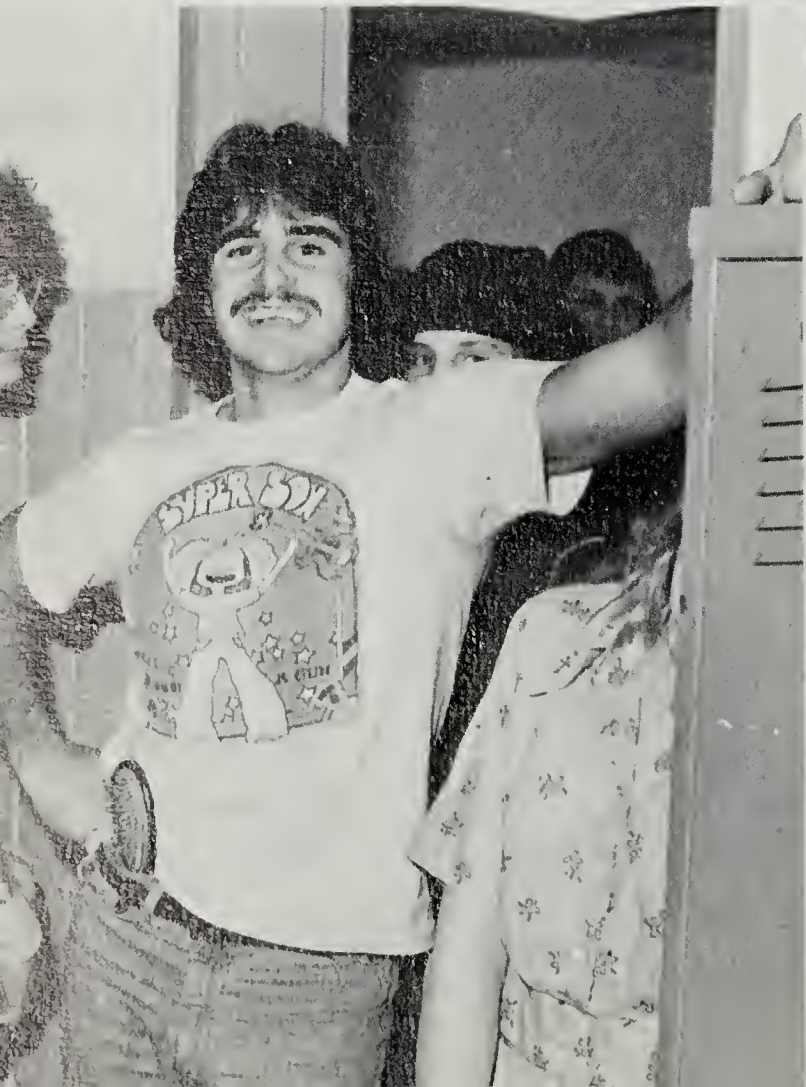

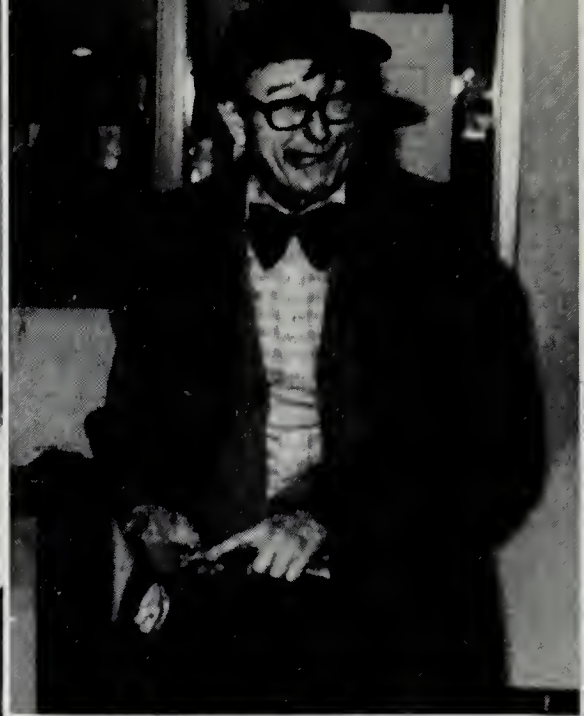

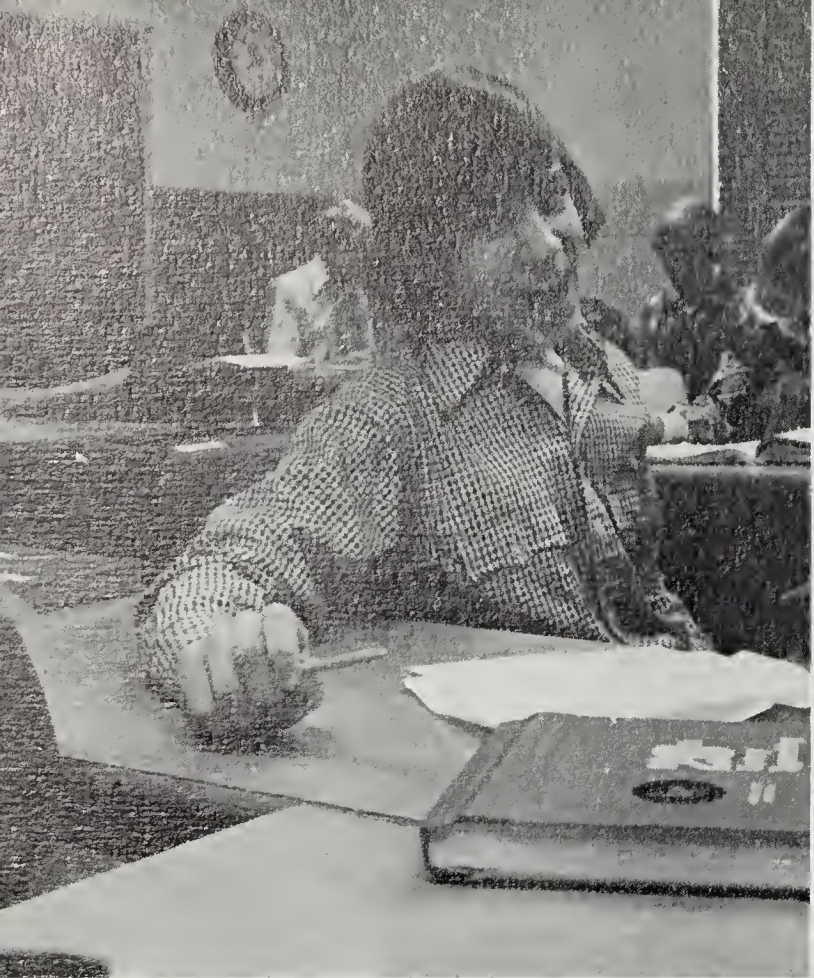

Memories of Falls Church will link our future with our past. Even as we forge ahead into life, we look back and hold onto the past. High school is a part of that past — it is a part of that future. We are only beginning to learn.

"The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future life."
